It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

HISTORICAL INTRODUCTION.

ESTABLISHMENT OF

FREE MASONRY IN VERMONT.

By GEORGE F. KOON.

VERMONT LODGE.

To give a detailed account of the union of the New Hampshire towns with Vermont would occupy too much space and probably would not particularly interest Masonic readers, but that the uninformed may understand why the original petition for a charter for Vermont Lodge was dated at "Cornish, Vermont," and why the lodge met at Charlestown, N. H., in place of Springfield, Vt., which was the town specified in the charter, it is thought proper to state that in 1778 a number of towns in New Hampshire bordering on the Connecticut river placed themselves under the control of Vermont, or in other words, united with that State. Referring to the causes which produced those events, Ira Allen says: "These measures drew the attention of the people, so that a petition from sixteen towns (including Hanover and others on the east side of Connecticut river) was presented to the Legislature of Vermont at their first session in March, 1778, * * * * and requested Vermont to receive them into union and confederation." At the next session of the Legislature, an act was passed authorizing said sixteen towns to elect and send members to the Legislature of Vermont at their next session. At the session of the General Assembly held October 1778, delegates from at least eight towns in New Hampshire took their seats in the General Assembly of Vermont, and one of their number—Hon. Bezaleel Woodward, professor of mathematics in Dartmouth College, son-in-law of President Wheelock—was elected clerk of the Assembly. Consulting Ira Allen's history again, we learn that "on the meeting of the Legislature of Vermont at Windsor, February 12th, 1779, to get rid of a connection which had occasioned so much trouble and danger, the Assembly passed an act, dissolving the union of the sixteen towns in New Hampshire." The continued postponement by Congress of decisive action upon the petition of Vermont for admission into the Union (which was a virtual refusal to admit them) completely exasperated the Vermont leaders. A plan was concocted [1780] by Ira Allen and Luke Knowlton, which resulted in the annexation of Western New Hampshire and a large part of the northeastern section of New York to Vermont. In 1781, delegates from at least seventeen towns in New Hampshire and nine towns in New York took their seats in the General Assembly of Vermont. "At the September election, 1781, there was no election of lieutenant-governor by the people, and Col Elisha Payne [delegate from Lebanon, N. H.] was elected by the Governor and Council, in conjunction with the Assembly."

The union of the New Hampshire towns with Vermont, though no doubt satisfactory to the settlers, could not be overlooked by New Hampshire. The attempt by the latter State to serve a civil process in these refractory towns soon brought matters to a crisis. The officers of Vermont had imprisoned two persons belonging to New Hampshire, and the Committee of Safety ordered Col. Hale, the High Sheriff of Cheshire County, to release the prisoners. In executing the order, Col. Hale was imprisoned himself, Dec. 6th, 1781, and only the most energetic action of the prominent leaders prevented a civil war. The 22d of February, 1782, the General Assembly of Vermont passed a resolution which dissolved the union of the New York and New Hampshire towns with Vermont.

In making the foregoing quotations and selections from the political history of Vermont and New Hampshire, the writer has endeavored to show that for a period of four years ending February, 1782, both sides of the Connecticut river were, to some extent, common territory. Settled, as that district was, by people who were friends and neighbors in Connecticut and Massachusetts, having similar likes and dislikes, and a large portion members of one church, it was difficult to make them understand why their separation by the Connecticut river should in any way interfere with their happiness, and any plan which aimed at a consolidation of this territory lying in the Connecticut Valley, was eagerly embraced and followed to the end. As a fact pertinent to this matter, we remark that there is ample proof to show that it was the aim and desire of the settlers in the Connecticut Valley, to take a portion of New Hampshire and a part of Vermont and form a new State, with Charlestown, Windsor, or some river town, for the capital.

We now proceed to speak of the Masonic history of Vermont Lodge. The eighth of November, 1781, a petition dated Cornish, Vermont, "praying for the establishment of a Lodge in that place," was presented to the St. Andrews Grand Lodge of Massachusetts, which being read, "whereupon, voted that a charter be issued accordingly." A charter, dated November 10th, 1781, locating the Lodge at Springfield, Vermont, was granted. The following is a literal copy of the first meeting of Vermont Lodge under its charter.

VERMONT LODGE RECORDS.

Lodge closed till Tuesday, the 18th December, to meet at Brother Bowen's in Charlestown."

The 18th of December, the Lodge met and elected its officers for the first time, as follows :

JOHN BARRETT,	Master.
RANNA COSSETT,	Senior Warden.
ALEXANDER RALSTON,	Junior Warden.
EBENEZER GREEN,	Senior Deacon.
JOHN HOUSE,	Junior Deacon.
CHARLES BOWEN,	Treasurer.
GEO. KIMBALL,	Secretary.
MOSES EMERSON,	Toiler.

With few exceptions, Colonel Barrett was Master of the Lodge from its organization until 1788. Col. George Kimball, for four years the Secretary, was the husband of Elizabeth Captive Johnson, the child born upon a flat rock in the town of Cavendish, while its mother was an Indian captive. The 28th December, 1781, "Voted, the founders of this Lodge whose names are in the charter, and Brothers Kimball and Stiles, who have not been passed and raised to the third degree of Masonry, be passed and raised without any expense to themselves." The 27th December, 1781, Rev. Bulkley Olcott, delivered "an excellent sermon" and Brother Ezra Stiles an oration. The festivals of St. John the Baptist and St. John the Evangelist were held regularly. All business except the conferring of degrees was transacted while the Lodge was open on the first degree. In place of presenting a written petition for initiation, the following course was pursued : "Brother Williams proposed for initiation Samuel Dexter. The Lodge being well informed of his character, proceeded to ballot. Balloted in Samuel Dexter, made Mason Samuel Dexter." Initiation did not include membership, that is, two ballots were taken, one for initiation and one for membership.

The fee for initiation was three pounds and twelve shillings. The Lodge does not appear to have had dues. Visitors were charged a fee of one shilling and sixpence. Notes were received by the Lodge for initiation fees. The stewards presented a bill frequently, which usually amounted to about twenty-four shillings. The fee for affiliation was eighteen shillings. Commencing with December 3, 1783, the records are headed "Vermont Lodge, No. 17," from which we learn that Massachusetts numbered her Lodges in early times. The records show that from its organization in 1781, down to Aug. 20, 1788, the Lodge met at Charlestown, N. H.

From the minutes of May 17, 1787, we learn that the Lodge were in some doubt as to the propriety of their meeting at Charlestown, N. H., contrary to the place specified in the charter, which was Springfield, Vt.

The 4th of July, 1787, the Lodge voted "thirty-six shillings to be disbursed out of the funds to those brethren who contributed the same to Brother James Alexander Jameson, a member of Union Lodge, No. 137, Savannah in Georgia." Up to Feb. 1, 1786, the financial account of the Lodge was kept in the minutes, a sum total of the funds being carried forward from one meeting to the next. The last entry shows that the Lodge had in the treasury two hundred and twenty-nine pounds, twelve shillings and seven pence.

March 6, 1788, Voted, that "the expense of the new charter which is procured in Boston for the holding a Lodge in Charlestown be paid out of the funds of Vermont Lodge."

This was the commencement of the steps taken for the division of the funds and removal of Vermont Lodge across the river into Vermont.

The charter referred to above was for Faithful Lodge at Charlestown, and was granted by Mass. Feb. 2, 1788. Faithful and Dartmouth Lodges at Hanover, which were chartered by Mass. the 18th December, 1788, were the fourth and fifth Lodges established in N. H. The last entry in the record book is as follows :

"Aug. 20, 1788, Voted, that a committee of five be chosen to look into the state of Vermont Lodge No. 17, and make what they conceive an equitable division between the members in the state of New Hampshire, and the members of the State of Vermont of the same and make report the next Lodge night."

The report of the foregoing committee is not in the old record book, but fortunately it is preserved in the records of Faithful Lodge of Charlestown, which was organized about the time Vermont Lodge was removed into the State of Vermont proper. The report is as follows :

Property of Vermont Lodge divided Feb. 4th, 1789.

Then follows a long list of notes.

Concerning the exact date of the removal of Vermont Lodge from Charlestown, N. H., to Springfield, Vt., the reader can decide as well as the writer. The appointment of the committee to divide the property the 20th Aug., 1788, and the report of said committee Feb. 4th, 1789, is all we have been able to find relating to this matter.

A petition, dated 14th May, 1795, was presented to the Grand Lodge, praying for the removal of Vermont Lodge from Springfield to Windsor, which was granted, and since that date the lodge has met at Windsor, until Sept. 19th, 1831, when, owing to the anti-masonic pressure, it suspended. In 1846, when the Grand Lodge was reorganized, Vermont lodge was not represented. In 1850, a petition was presented to and granted by the Grand Lodge for a lodge at Windsor, whereby old Vermont lodge, No. 1, again came into existence, and was assigned the subordinate rank of No. 18, in place of her former honored position. The date of the present charter is January 10th, 1850.

The original Massachusetts charter was burned many years ago. The only record book known to exist prior to 1818, size 18 by 12 inches square, contains the records from the organization of the lodge to Aug. 20, 1788, inclusive. Below we give the names of those who received one or more degrees during that period.

The charter members, with brief sketches of their lives, were as follows :

COL. JOHN BARRETT,

Of Springfield, Vt., was the first Master of Vermont Lodge, a position he held some years. Next to Gen. R. Morris, he was the most influential man in town. He is believed to have been born in Middletown, Conn., in 1731. He came to Springfield at an early day, was clerk of the proprietors, afterwards Town Clerk, and in all the duties appertaining to Town and County matters, he was a prominent actor. He received his appointment of Lieutenant-Colonel of a Regiment in Gloucester and Cumberland counties, Vermont, from the New York Council of Safety, January 27th, 1776. The 7th of September, 1776, General Gates ordered Col. Barrett "to cut the road from Charlestown, number four, to the foot of Mount Independence, taking care to construct a good bridge over Otter Creek, at or near the falls at Rutland," which task was faithfully performed. In 1778, he was a delegate to the General Assembly of Vermont, and a member of various important committees. He was a charter member, also, of Olive Branch Lodge at Chester. The 3rd of December, 1806, he was accidentally drowned in the Black River, Vermont, at the age of 75 years. The 20th of February, 1763, one John Barrett was initiated in Hiram Lodge No. 1, New Haven, Conn., who, in the opinion of the writer, was Col. Barrett.

CAPT. AMOS EMERSON,

Of Chester, N. H., was a soldier of the Revolution. As Lieutenant in Captain Hutchins' Company, Colonel Reid's Regiment, he faced the British troops behind the redoubt at "Breed's Hill," in front of which, history tells us, the British troops fell like leaves in the forest, under the galling fire of the hardy boys from the New Hampshire hills. He was promoted to captain and served at West Point, New Jersey, and other places, under Colonel Joseph Cilley. His term of service was five years, and possibly during the entire war of the Revolution. After the war he removed to Candia, N. H., where he died in 1823, leaving several children. He married in 1762 Susannah, daughter of Captain Abel Morse.

LIEUTENANT BARTLETT HINDS.

Concerning this man, the writer has been up to this time unable to procure any information. There was a family of Hinds at Charlestown, N. H., near the close of the last century, of which possibly Lieutenant Hinds was a member. He visited the Lodge twice in 1781. After that date his name does not appear. He served in the Revolution, as Lieutenant. Was made a Mason in Washington Army Lodge No. 10.

DR. THOMAS STERNE

Was a resident of Claremont, N. H. He removed to Windsor, where he resided many years. The inscription upon his tombstone in the old cemetery at Windsor is as follows: "In memory of Dr. Thomas Sterne, who died 24th Nov. 1816, in the 72nd year of his age." The people of Windsor believe that he originally came from Connecticut.

STEPHEN ALVORD

Was an early settler of Charlestown, N. H. He visited the Lodge but six times from its organization to 1788. The 27th December, 1786, he was "discontinued as member of this Lodge" by his own request. Shortly after this date, he removed from town.

COLONEL JOHN HOUSE

Was an early settler of Hanover, N. H., and a prominent officer in the revolution. Was one of the original proprietors of Dorchester, N. H. He owned at one time two islands in the Connecticut river, opposite Hanover. Was appointed in 1771, with others, to lay out a road from Pemigewassett River to Dartmouth College. Was one of the grantees of Randolph, Vt. His bill for surveying the road from Dartmouth College to Plymouth was allowed by the General Assembly, N. H., the 10th Feb., 1773. He served as captain under Colonel Joseph Cilley in 1777-78-79. Represented the town of Hanover, N. H., in the General Assembly of Vermont in 1780.

COLONEL TIMOTHY BEDELL

Was an early settler of Haverhill, N. H., having moved to that section from Salem, N. H. He was at Haverhill as early as 1762, boarding with Uriah Morse. His history is best learned by reference to the offices he held during the period of the Indian wars from 1754 to 1763, and also during the revolutionary period. In 1775, July 6, he was appointed captain of the first company of Rangers. In 1776, he had the command of a regiment raised in the northern part of the state, for service in Canada. At "the Cedars," his regiment surrendered ingloriously to the enemy, and Colonel Bedell suffered in consequence in reputation; but the facts of the unfortunate disaster exonerated him completely, as he was on his way to Montreal, to obtain reinforcements, and his regiment at the Fort of the Cedars was under the command of Major Butterfield. Colonel Bedell, after the revolution, enjoyed largely the public confidence, and besides holding important civil offices, was major-general of the second division of N. H. Militia. He was the ancestor of General John Bedell, a distinguished officer of the late Union Army. He was one of the grantees of Newbury, Vt. He married Mary, daughter of Captain James and Susannah Johnson. His wife was sister of Elizabeth Captive Johnson, so often referred to in history, who was born while her mother was an Indian prisoner, in the forest within the limits of the present town of Cavendish, Vt. He was one of the Vermont Board of War in 1781. He represented the towns of Lyman, Morristown and Bath, N. H., in the General Assembly of Vermont in 1781. His name appears in the list of members of Union Lodge No. 1. Albany, N. Y.

CAPTAIN EBENEZER GREEN

Was a resident of Thetford, Vt., and afterwards of Lyme, N. H. In 1768, he was one of the selectmen of Thetford. The 27th of Nov., 1770, was appointed Constable of Gloucester Co., Vt., by the New York court then sitting in that county. The 27th of May, 1772, he petitioned the General Assembly of New Hampshire for the privilege of a ferry from Thetford, Vt., to Lyme, N. H. Was one of the proprietors of the town of Orange, Vt. During the union of the New Hampshire towns with Vermont, he represented the town of Lyme in the General Assembly of Vermont in 1781. He served as Captain in Colonel Bedell's Regiment, and was probably at the surrender of that regiment at "the Cedars," referred to in the sketch of Colonel Bedell. He was left as a hostage in Canada by Arnold, March 1st, 1783, and was appointed Lieutenant-Colonel in the 12th Regiment N. H. militia. He was made a Mason in Masters Lodge, Albany, N. Y., the 6th of January, 1778.

LIEUTENANT JOHN PAYNE, JR.,

Was probably from Lebanon, N. H. The town records contain a record of the children of one John Payne. Lieutenant Payne served in 1775 in Captain Daniel's company guarding Piscataqua Harbor. One John Payne was an inn-keeper at Lebanon in 1776. Was one of the grantees of Randolph, Vt. Lieutenant Payne also served as a scout in the Coos country.

LIEUTENANT THOMAS BINGHAM

Was born 14th of July, 1742, at Lebanon or Windham, Conn. He married and removed to Lebanon, N. H., in 1761, where he resided until about 1785, when he removed to Royalton, Vt., which was his home the remainder of his life. In February, 1777, he received a lieutenant's commission in the 8th Connecticut Regiment, commanded by Colonel John Chandler. In March, 1778, he was honorably discharged. He was one of the grantees of the town of Orange, Vt. Previous to and after the war, his only vocation was that of a farmer. He died at Royalton, the 23rd of September, 1823.

ZIBA HALL, ELIHU NEWELL AND FRANCIS BEATTY.

The writer has failed to learn anything concerning these men or their residence.

LIEUTENANT NATHANIEL HALL

Was a resident of Lebanon, N. H. The birth dates of his children are recorded on the town records. In 1777, he held the rank of Lieutenant in Colonel Chase's Regiment.

JOHN HEWETT.

Concerning this man, the writer has been unable to gather any information, except that he was a resident of Charlestown, N. H., and a tax-payer in 1792.

CHARLES BOWEN

Was born in Northfield, Mass., in 1742, and removed to Charlestown, N. H., about 1774. The 19th Dec., 1775, he married Dinah Field. He was a regular attendant at the communications of Vermont Lodge, the lodge meeting at his house. For some years he was treasurer. His son Charles was a lieutenant in the war of 1812, and was living in 1874, at Tarrytown, N. Y. Charles the subject of this sketch, died the 22d July, 1809.

ALEXANDER RALSTON

Was born in Scotland about 1740, married and came to America previous to the Revolution. Soon after his arrival in this country he settled in Keene, N. H., where he kept hotel, and perhaps a store. He also owned something of a farm. He was a man of considerable property, and in those days considered wealthy. He died, it is thought, some years previous to 1835.

DR. JONAS PRESCOTT

Was a descendant of John Prescott, who settled in Watertown, Mass., in 1640. Jonas, son of John Prescott and Mary White, was born the 6th Aug., 1754. He married, 31st March, 1779, Susanah White, by whom he had five children. She died and he married Ruth Kidder, by whom he had two children. He studied medicine, settled in Templeton, Mass., where he died. In 1778, he served as surgeon in Colonel Enoch Hale's Regiment, New Hampshire troops, under General Sullivan, in the expedition against the British forces, who were at this period in possession of Rhode Island. He was a distant cousin of W. H. Prescott, the historian.

CAPTAIN PHINEAS HUTCHINS,

Of Walpole, N. H., originally came from Lunenburg, Mass. In the difficulty between Vermont and New Hampshire in 1781, which grew out of the imprisonment of certain parties, Captain Hutchins occupied a prominent position. He received the second and third degrees in Vermont Lodge April 3d, 1782. He died some time previous to 1786. His widow married in 1786, Elijah Grout, of Charlestown, N. H.

DR. GEORGE EAGER

Was a resident of Hanover, N. H. In 1778, he served as surgeon in Colonel Bedell's regiment, raised early in the year for frontier duty or continental service, as occasion might require. The regiment was discharged in March, 1778, and Colonel Bedell received orders to raise another regiment for one year's service. In this regiment also, Dr. Eager served as Surgeon. He received the third degree in Vermont Lodge June 3d, 1782. His name appears among the members of Union Lodge No. 1, of Albany, N. Y., which is fair evidence that he was made a Mason in that lodge.

NORTH STAR LODGE.

The second Lodge established in Vermont was at Manchester. It was chartered by the St. Andrews Grand Lodge of Massachusetts, the 20th January, 1785. Following is a literal copy of the minutes of the organization and first meeting of the Lodge.

"At a convention of Free and Accepted Masons composing the North Star Lodge, at the house of Brother Stephen Keyes, in Manchester, County of Bennington, State of Vermont, on the third day of February, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, for the purpose of incorporating themselves into a regular Lodge agreeably to a Charter granted by our Grand Master, Brother Joseph Webb, whereby our Worthy Brother Nathan'el Brush was appointed Master and opened the Lodge in due form."

Att. : WILLIAM GOULD, Sec'y."

The meetings of the Lodge were first held at the Inn of Brother Stephen Keyes. The building stood on the main street of Manchester, on the site of the present residence of Hon. H. K. Fowler. Later, the Lodge met at the house of Dr. Abel Allis, innkeeper and druggist, and treasurer of the Lodge for some years. Quarterly dues were twelve and one-half cents. Fees for the degrees were nine dollars for initiation, two for passing and two for raising. Tyler's fees were 75 cents per evening. Visitors were charged a small fee after the first visit. The original Massachusetts charter is in the archives of the Grand Lodge. The records from the organization of the Lodge in 1785, to August 3d, 1810, are complete in one volume. From these records we have selected a few items of interest.

Each degree was opened and closed, that is, the Lodge opened on the "first step of Masonry," transacted any business that was presented, and then closed the Lodge on that degree, and opened on the second or third. The expression "Master's will and pleasure" is noticed as early as 1794.

Jan. 31, 1786, "Voted, that Brother Hitchcock be directed to procure a seal for the lodge." No further reference to a seal is noticed until April 4th, 1793, when it was "Voted, the treasurer, Brother Huntington, deliver to Brother William Coley eighteen dollars for stock to make the necessary jewels for the use of the North Star Lodge, also that Brother Wm. Coley execute a seal of copper for the use of the Lodge, to cost 18 shillings." The seal, which was probably the first in Vermont, was a plain circle enclosing the words "North Star Lodge Verm." The device in the centre was a circle upon which rested the square and compasses.

The Festival of St. John the Evangelist was held Dec. 27, 1786, at Bennington, and Brother Nathaniel Chipman delivered the oration. The Festivals were held regularly, and sermons were delivered by Rev. Elijah Sill and Rev. Dr. Williams.

The 4th December, 1787, the Lodge was Installed by R. W. Israel Jones. May 7th, 1792, "In consequence of a petition signed by Brothers Enoch Woodbridge, Jabez G. Fitch, Samuel Strong, Roswell Hopkins and Stephen Keyes, dated Vergennes, April 30, 1792, for a dismission from this North Star Lodge," "Voted that said petition be granted." March 6, 1793, "Voted that the petition of Brother Daniel Fay, Brother Anthony Haswell, Brother David Russell, Brother Joseph Fay, Brother Joseph Hinsdale be granted."

Both of the foregoing petitions were for the purpose of forming new Lodges. Feb. 1, 1793, Nathan Brownson, ex-Governor of Georgia, was admitted a member and received the second and third degrees the same evening.

June 23d, 1794. "Agreeable to a request of the Sec'y. of Dorchester Lodge, &c., Voted Br. Nathl. Brownson represent the North Star Lodge in convention with members from the other Lodges in this State to meet in the month of August next at Manchester." A committee to instruct Brother Brownson was appointed. August 4th, 1794, Bro. Brownson made a report to the lodge and asked that two brethren be added to the committee. Brothers Christopher Roberts and William Coley were appointed, agreeable to the request of Bro. Brownson.

As men who assisted in the formation of the Grand Lodge of Vermont, the foregoing committee deserve more notice than the bare mention of their names.

NATHAN BROWNSON, M. D.,

Was born at Woodbury, Conn., May 14th, 1742. He was a brother of the Brownsons of Sunderland, but never resided in Vermont. He graduated from Yale College in 1761, and soon after removed to Midway, Liberty Co., Georgia. He was introduced to the citizens of Liberty county by Dr. Dunwody and appears to have taken an active part in the political affairs of the day. He was a member of the Provincial Congress of 1775, of the Continental Congress of 1776 and 1778, was for some time Surgeon in the army, was elected by Congress, June 6th, 1782, Deputy Purveyor for the Southern hospitals, was speaker of the Legislature in 1781, by which body he was chosen Governor; was also speaker in 1778, President of the Senate in 1789-91, and member of the convention which formed the State Constitution in 1789. He owned a plantation of some five hundred acres and kept slaves. He was the president of the convention which formed the Grand Lodge of Vermont. Drake's Biographical Dictionary states that he died in "Nov., 1796." It is an error; the writer personally investigated the matter, and found that he died "Oct. 18th, 1796," and is buried in the church yard of the old Midway meeting house, where the cypress head-boards have been standing for a century.

CHRISTOPHER ROBERTS

Was born at Amenia, Dutchess county, New York, May 4th, 1753, and came with his father's family to Manchester soon after the close of the French and Indian War. Roberts, though young, was active in the cause of the settlers holding grants from New Hampshire. He was with Ethan Allen at the taking of Ticonderoga and the family state that he was the third man to enter the fortress, Allen and Arnold entering together. While conducting a party of women and children to a place of safety in Massachusetts, the battle of Bennington was fought. Hearing of the victory he returned to his home. In the State Militia he held the various grades from lieutenant to brigadier-general. He represented the town in the legislature in 1807, was Judge of Probate six elections ending 1805, and Assistant Judge of the County Court two terms ending 1799. He was made a Mason in North Star Lodge. He died May 10th, 1832.

WILLIAM COLEY,

Was born December 2d, 1758, in Hanover Square, London. His father was a silver-smith, and, as the writer is informed by the family, made knee-buckles for King George. He (the father) came to America and settled in New York city about 1764, when he kept hotel on Front street. At the breaking out of the revolution, William—our subject—entered the army and served seven years in the cavalry service, principally under Gen. Greene. Leaving the army, he returned to New York city, where, with his father for instructor—he perfected his knowledge of die-cutting. The date of his removal to Rupert, Vermont, is unknown to the writer. His name first appears in the records of North Star Lodge, Nov. 2d, 1786. As we have already stated, he made the jewels and seal for North Star Lodge. He also cut the first seal of the Grand Lodge of Vermont. Various facts tend to prove that he was the man who cut the dies from which the Vermont coppers of 1785–1788 were struck. It is a fact he resided in Rupert when the coppers were made by Reuben Harmon, and that Mr. Harmon had as partners gentlemen from New York City, who probably knew Coley. Harmon and Coley were both members of a company in Ulster County, N. Y., established “for the avowed purpose of coining copper.” Mr. Coley was Sheriff of Bennington County in 1798 and 1799. He was also Colonel in the old State Militia. Shortly after 1807, he sold his property in Vermont and removed to Deruyter, N. Y., from thence to Georgetown and finally to Otselic, N. Y., where he resided the remainder of his life. He was a small man, dark complexioned, quick and nervous like a Frenchman. Having received a superior education, speaking French like a native, city bred, and having always associated with men of culture, he was well calculated to be an addition and ornament to any society. His service as an officer of the Grand Lodge can be found in the table inserted in this book. He frequently said that when the time had arrived for him to die, he wished to go like the going out of a candle. He was in the kitchen, one day, helping the ladies, by chopping mince meat; some one spoke to him; he did not reply, for the spirit of William Coley had fled while he was sitting in the chair. This occurred Nov. 30th, 1843.

In the sketch of Vermont Lodge, it was stated that notes were received for initiation fees. Having none of the early papers for that Lodge, we insert a copy of one of the notes given to North Star Lodge.

MANCHESTER, February 25th, 1793.

I, For value received, promise to pay John Huntington as Treasurer of North Star Lodge Eight Dollars in Cash on Demand.

GEORGE SEXTON.

To forcibly illustrate what was understood by "refreshment" in early days, we insert two steward's bills, which are fair samples of all.

The last meeting of the lodge was Aug. 3d, 1810. Failing to be represented, and pay their annual dues, the lodge was suspended Oct. 6, 1812, and has never been reorganized.

The Charter Members (with brief sketches of their lives) were as follows :

COLONEL NATHANIEL BRUSH,

Son of Reuben Brush and Ruth Wood, his wife, was born 22d April, 1741, probably at Huntington Long Island. Previous to 1770, he resided at Nine Partners, N. Y. About 1770 he removed to Bennington, Vt., which was his home the remainder of his life. His first wife was Semantha Dewey, by whom he had four children. She died the 27th Feb., 1789. Two or three years later he married Abigail Brush, of Windsor, who came from Boston, who bore him three children, one of whom was Adelia, the mother of Hon. Leverett Brush Englesby, Grand Master of Vermont. He commanded the Militia of his own town in the Bennington Battle, served as judge of Probate in 1781 and from 1787 to 1794, and as clerk of the courts from 1787 to 1803. He was initiated the 9th Feb., 1778, in Masters lodge Albany, N. Y. Was Grand Treasurer of the Grand Lodge Vermont from 1794 to 1800. He died at Bennington, July 3d, 1803.

DR. EBENEZER MARVIN

Was born in April, 1741, in the southwest part of Connecticut. He studied medicine and located at Stillwater, N. Y., where he became widely patronized. When the Revolutionary War broke out he soon became involved in it, first as captain of a volunteer company which went to the assistance of Ethan Allen and Benedict Arnold at Ticonderoga, and afterward as surgeon in the continental Army, till that was moved south, after the capture of Burgoyne After this date he removed to Lansingburgh, N. Y., and from thence to Tinmouth, Vt., in 1781, where he was at once assigned a front rank in his profession. In 1794, he virtually relinquished the medical field and removed to Franklin, where he became a large owner of real estate. He was representative from Tinmouth five years, a member of the first council of censors, Judge of Rutland county court six years, also Chief Judge Chittenden county court. He was made a Mason in 1777, in Masters Lodge, Albany, N. Y. He died in Nov., 1820.

COLONEL STEPHEN KEYES,

One of the early residents of Manchester, came from Connecticut, where he had served in the Revolution in Sheldon's regiment of dragoons. He kept a hotel in which the lodge held their meetings. Previous to 1793, he removed to Burlington, where he again engaged in hotel keeping on Water street and was collector for the district of Vermont. Colonel Keyes was a gentleman of the old school, who wore a cocked hat; polite and warm hearted, and well calculated to gain the good will of all who made his acquaintance. His house was famed for its good dinners. He was a charter member of Montgomery lodge, at Salisbury, Conn., and of Washington Lodge of Burlington, Vt.

GENERAL GIDEON BROWNSON,

From Salisbury, Conn., was one of the first settlers of Sunderland, early as 1765; was a captain in Warner's regiment of Green Mountain Boys, and served in Canada, in the year 1775 and 1776. In 1777, he was commissioned a captain in Warner's Continental Regiment, and served through the war, having been promoted to the rank of major. He was the first town clerk of Sunderland and represented the town several years in the Legislature. He died Oct. 9th, 1797, aged 58 years. He received the second degree in North Star Lodge Jan. 14, 1785, and the third Jan. 31st, 1786.

DR. WILLIAM GOULD,

A graduate of Yale College in 1771, was an early settler of Manchester, and was probably the first physician in town. He was one of the original members of the first medical society of Vermont, his name appearing in the act of October, 1784, incorporating that society. He received the third degree in North Star Lodge June 14, 1785.

ABRAHAM IVES

Came from Wallingford, Conn., and settled in Wallingford, Vermont, shortly after 1773. He was a member of the Dorset convention of July 24, 1776; sheriff of Rutland county from 1781 to 1785, inclusive, and town representative in 1779 and 1783. He kept a store and a tavern, the first that were opened in town. At the time of the invasion of Burgoyne, Mr. Ives, being well known as a patriot, was, with others of that class, in much danger; consulting, therefore, his own safety, more particularly that of his family, he concealed his goods and returned for a short time to Connecticut. About 1786-7, he removed to Wallingford, Conn. In 1794, he attended the session of the Grand Lodge of Connecticut. He received the first degree of Masonry in Vermont Lodge Aug. 7th, 1782.

ELEAZAR MARBLE,

Of Salisbury, Conn., sold a certain tract of land known as Buck Hollow, in the town of Fairfax, to a party of gentlemen of Arlington. The writer has been unable to gather any further information concerning this man.

DORCHESTER LODGE.

Dorchester Lodge, the third established in Vermont previous to the organization of the Grand Lodge, was chartered the 5th of May, 1791, by Sir John Johnson, Bart., Grand Master of the Province of Quebec. The Lodge is believed to have been named after Lord Dorchester (Gen. Guy Carleton), who was a particular friend of Sir John, the Baronet. Owing to the loss of the early records, the task of sketching the history of this Lodge is an extremely difficult one.

Agreeable to an article in the constitution, which required all the Lodges in Vermont to surrender their original charters and receive new ones from the Grand Lodge of Vermont, Dorchester Lodge surrendered the charter received from Canada and received in its place their present charter, dated October 12th, 1798. The original charter from Canada cannot be found.

The officers in 1795 and 1796, were as follows :

Samuel Hitchcock,	Master.
Jabez G. Fitch,	Senior Warden.
Justus Bellamy,	Junior Warden.

1796.

Samuel Hitchcock,	Master.
Justus Bellamy,	Junior Warden.

The officers in the charter received from the Grand Lodge of Vermont were Jabez G. Fitch, Master, Justus Bellamy, S. W., and Josiah H. Fitch, J. W.

To Dorchester Lodge belongs the honor of bringing to Masonic light the distinguished Philip C. Tucker, which occurred the 8th of Nov., 1821.

Another noted member of this Lodge is Samuel Willson, who as the faithful custodian of the Webb Lectures, has earned a reputation which will endure for many years to come.

Having as members Tucker, Stephen Haight and others of that fearless stamp, it would be reasonable to expect that Dorchester Lodge would be the last to succumb to anti-masonic pressure, but singularly enough, the last entry in the record book previous to the re-organization of the Grand Lodge, is May 6th, 1830, though we find that the Lodge was represented in Grand Lodge in Oct., 1830, also in 1831, 1833 and 1846. At a meeting of the Lodge held Jan. 11th, 1847, it was "Resolved, that it is expedient to discontinue our Masonic labors and surrender our charter and jewels to the Grand Lodge of the State." Universally rejected." This resolution, which appears to have been a test vote, was well enough, but when it is remembered that the Lodge had not kept any records for more than sixteen years, it certainly sounds peculiar. Immediately after the rejection of the above resolution it was "'Resolved that we will continue our Masonic associations and labors, and that we will send a delegate or delegates to the Grand Lodge to be holden at Burlington on the 15th inst., and that he or they be instructed to notify the Grand Lodge.' Universally passed."

The foregoing resolutions, under date of June 11th, 1847, appear to have been the preliminary steps taken for the re-organization of the Lodge, though members of the Lodge were present at the convention of Jan. 14th, 1846, and after the organization of the Grand Lodge, the same day, Dorchester, as a Lodge, was represented by Philip C. Tucker, Master and proxy for S. W. It was in early times, and it is to-day a flourishing Lodge. Its original rank was No. 3. In 1849, it was assigned the honorable position of No. 1. The records previous to Jan. 22d, 1807, cannot be found. The following list of members is taken from the Grand Lodge record book.

HON. ENOCH WOODBRIDGE,

Son of Hon. Timothy Woodbridge and Abigail Day, his wife, was born at Stockbridge, Massachusetts, Dec. 25, 1750. Timothy, his father, the first settler of Stockbridge, was for many years Judge of the Court of Probate and Common Pleas for the Colony of Massachusetts. In 1774 he was appointed a member of the Governor's Council, by a mandamus from the King, but he declined, as his sympathies were entirely with the Colonists. Enoch graduated from Yale in 1774, and in the same year married

Mary Winchell, of Oblong, N. Y., by whom he had eight children, one of whom, Enoch Day, was Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Vermont five years. The account of the massacre of Lexington, which, like the wind, swept over the New England States, fell upon the ears of the settlers like a thunder-clap. One of the first to take down the rifle was Enoch Woodbridge. Leaving his young wife, he rushed to the front, to the post of danger, and, as Lieut. Woodbridge, is known as one of that immortal band, who, at the dawn of day, as the gray mist slowly lifted, crossed Champlain, entered "Old Ti," and struck the second blow for America's independence. He was at Quebec and stood at the side of the gallant Montgomery as he fell. He was at Hubbardton, the battle that took from us the brave Col. Francis. He was at Bennington, where Stark sent England's hirelings (but brave men) to their deaths. He took part in the battle, and was present at the surrender of Burgoyne. In the battle of White Plains he fought, and was wounded by a Hessian bayonet. After the war he settled in Pownal, Vermont, and commenced the practice of law. He soon removed to Manchester, and from thence to Vergennes, where he lived the remainder of his life. He was the first Mayor of the City of Vergennes, was a member of the Assembly from 1791 until 1795, and again in 1802; a delegate to the Constitutional Convention of 1793, Judge of the Supreme Court in 1794, and until 1810, and Chief Justice for the last three years of service. The 20th day of April, 1785, he was admitted a member of North Star Lodge. April 30th, 1792, he applied for a dismission from North Star Lodge, he having in the meantime become a charter member of Dorchester Lodge, which petition was granted May 7, 1792. His name is found in the list of members of Union Lodge, No. 1, Albany, N. Y. He died April 25, 1805.

COL. JOHN CHIPMAN.

(See history of Union Lodge.)

DR. ROSWELL HOPKINS,

Son of Roswell Hopkins and Mary Converse, his wife, was born at Amenia, Dutchess county, New York, May 16, 1757. He received only a common school education, and was brought up a farmer till about 16 years of age, when, in consequence of an injury which rendered him somewhat lame in one foot, he gave up that honorable pursuit, and in 1776, having removed to Bennington, Vermont, he studied medicine and surgery with Dr. Jonas Fay. During this time, he was much engaged in writing for the public. He was in the battle of Bennington, August 16, 1777. He also served as assistant surgeon in a regiment of militia in Gates' army at the taking of Burgoyne. In 1778, he was at West Point for some time, as a surgeon in a militia regiment. In August of this year, he went to sea as surgeon's mate in the privateer "New Broom." In October the vessel was captured by four British frigates, he was put on board the Sultan, a British seventy-four and was carried into Newport, Rhode Island, and in the month of December was confined in the prison at that place from Tuesday noon until Saturday afternoon, without anything to eat during the time. The next Monday he was exchanged, when he returned to Bennington. He entered upon the duties of register of the Probate Court of Bennington county in 1778, and remained in this position until 1781. During this time, in 1779, he had been chosen clerk of the General Assembly of Vermont, in which position he remained until 1787. About 1786 he removed to Vergennes, where he was chosen clerk of Addison county court, which office he continued to fill until 1801. He was Secretary of State from October 10, 1788, until October 15, 1802, when he resigned. The 27th October, 1787, a tract of land in Caledonia county, Vt., consisting of 11,264 acres, was chartered to Dr. Roswell Hopkins, and in allusion to his name was called Hopkinsville. Subsequently 2,527 acres were added from the town of Burke, and in 1808 the name was changed to Kirby, which name the town bears to-day. Sometime previous to 1803, Dr. Hopkins bought a large tract of land in St. Lawrence county, N. Y., where he removed his family, and where he resided the remainder of his life. Under his judicious management settlers came, and March 2d, 1805, the town was organized, and named Hopkinton, which has never been changed. He was a member of the New York State Assembly some years, director of the old Lansingburgh bank, judge of the county court, with Ogden and Raymond. He was active in promoting the Potsdam Academy, and all benevolent institutions for the elevation and improvement of his fellow men. In June, 1780, he married Lydia Dewey, who was famed as a beautiful, brilliant woman. They had nine children. One who knew him says : "He was a sound counsellor, and true to every trust. He had neither taste nor talent for declamation, otherwise he would share in the historic fame of his compeers. He was more noted for his taciturnity than his loquacity. In giving his opinion in public counsels, his arguments in support of his position were few, but cogent and convincing." He was initiated in North Star Lodge the 21st October, 1788. At the organization of the Grand Lodge, he was elected Grand Junior Deacon, and was re-elected in 1795 and 1796. He was Grand Scjior Deacon in 1797 ; Grand Secretary four years, commencing with 1798. While on a journey to Vermont, from his home in New York State, he was thrown from his carriage, and, as we are informed, passed away before his family could reach him. This occurred September 5th, 1829.

WILLIAM BRUSH,

Brother of Colonel Nathaniel, was born May 12, 1750, probably at Huntington, Long Island. He settled in Vergennes at an early day, and was the first Justice of Peace (1787-88). In 1786 he was elected assistant Judge Addison County Court, which position he resigned the following year. About 1806 he removed to Hopkinton, N. Y., where he resided until about 1814, when, his wife dying, he went West to reside with his daughter.

WILLIAM GOODRICH,

Son of Captain Stephen, settled in Middlebury in the spring of 1784, with his father and brother Amos. After they had taken possession, the father returned to their former home in Glastenbury, Conn., leaving his two sons to make a commencement before he removed his family. The brothers erected a shanty and spent the summer in clearing the land. In 1785, the father returned with his wife and daughter, cart and oxen. Guided by marked trees they made their way through the wilderness to the river, when the family and cart were floated down the river on a raft. Of William Goodrich's wife we have no knowledge, further than that she taught the first primary school in Middlebury. Mr. Goodrich kept hotel some years, and was town clerk from 1797 to 1812, except one year. He was made a Mason in Masters' Lodge, Albany, N. Y., in 1776. He died in 1812, of the epidemic, at the age of 57.

GENERAL SAMUEL STRONG,

Son of Hon. John Strong and Agnes McClure, his wife, was born at Salisbury, Conn., 17th July, 1762. He came to Vermont with his father, who settled in Addison, about 1765. Of his boyhood we have no knowledge. That those traits of character, which, at mature age, made him so conspicuous as a citizen and military leader were early developed, is evident from the fact that at the age of 25 years he was elected Sheriff of Addison County, in which capacity he served two years, 1787 and 1788. When 31 years of age he removed to Vergennes, where, as second mayor of that City, and first president of the Vergennes bank, he served the people faithfully and acquired a reputation as a man of integrity which he ever bore through life. He possessed the elements which make a military leader in a great degree. Having served in the minor grades, he was, the 5th of November, 1804, elected by the General Assembly, Major-General 3d Division Vermont Militia. His reputation as a soldier is best learned from the various accounts of the battle of Plattsburgh, in which the volunteers from Vermont participated under his command. That the Vermonters under General Strong sustained their reputation for bravery is evident from the following quotation: "After repeated attempts to cross the Saranac and storm Macomb's forts, the British once succeeded, and advanced until they met the Green Mountain Boys under Gen. Strong, when they were driven back with great loss." Referring to the battle, Gov. Chittenden says in his speech in 1814, "Much is due to Gen. Strong and our brave volunteers." The 11th of Nov., 1814, the General Assembly of Vermont presented their thanks to Gen. Strong for his services at Plattsburgh. The 25th June, 1718, the Legislature of New York presented Gen. Strong with a sword in consideration of his services rendered at Plattsburgh. This sword, we are pleased to say, has been carefully preserved and is in the possession of the family. He was Assistant Judge Addison County Court in 1805 and 1807, also from 1813 to 1815, inclusive. He was town representative in 1804 and 1805. The 8th Feb, 1787, he married Mary Bloomer, of Dorset, Vt. They had five children who lived to maturity, as follows: Mary married Roswell D. Hepkins; Clarissa married Enoch D. Woodbridge, Grand Secretary Grand Lodge Vermont; Susan never married; Samuel P. was Major-General of Vermont Militia; Electa married William H. Smith. Gen. Strong, like all the early settlers of Vermont, followed farming, which, with various improvements of the water-power of Vergennes, he rapidly accumulated a large property. He is remembered as a tall, spare man, deep-set, dark brown eyes, gray hair, a man of sagacity, firmness and tenacity of purpose, tireless energy, quick to observe and prompt to decide. A cold taken at Plattsburgh, from which he never recovered, terminated in consumption. After bravely struggling with this disease many years, he died at Vergennes December 5th, 1832, aged 70 years.

COLONEL JABEZ G. FITCH,

Son of Dr. Jabez Fitch, was born at Canterbury, Conn, March 20th, 1764. He was a great-grand-son of Maj.-Gen. James Fitch, of Norwich, Conn., who commanded the continental troops in the several expeditions against Canada in 1709, and during the old French war in 1744, until the subjugation of Canada in 1760. He was a brother of Rev. Ebenezer Fitch, D.D., first president of Williams College, Mass., and of Anna, wife of Rev. Daniel C. Sanders, D.D., first president of the University of Vermont in Burlington. He married Speedy Goodrich, by whom he had two sons and three daughters. His home was at Vergennes. He was United States Marshal from 1797 to 1801. He was made a Mason in North Star Lodge, June 23d, 1785, and appears to have been quite an active man for some years, serving as Deputy Grand Master in 1801.

MAJOR SAM. B. SHELDON,

Son of Colonel Elisha, commander of "Sheldon's Dragoons" of revolutionary fame, was born at Salisbury, Conn., in 1760. In 1789, he visited the present town of Sheldon, to look the township over and inspect the soil previous to purchasing. Late in the spring of 1790, Major Sam., with his father and brothers, removed to Vermont and became the first settlers and proprietors of the town which bears their name. Samuel B. Sheldon, our subject, "had the sterling qualities combined, keenness of perception, a correct judgment and courteous address. Although there was not as much of startling incident in his life, it is acknowledged—and only just of him to say—that he was the principal moving, governing character in the earlier settlements of the town. He possessed physical and moral courage in the highest sense, as evinced by his early visit to the town when a dense wilderness." He was the first representative of his town, and first town clerk, which office he held twelve years. Through life he manifested much interest in military affairs, and took an active part in all of the military doings of his day. In fact, the immediate cause of his death was traced to a severe cold caught while addressing, hat in hand, a company of boys whom he had uniformed at his own expense. This occurred in 1780, and in him the town lost her leading character, the popular and lamented Maj. Sam. B. Sheldon. He was made a Mason in North Star Lodge, March 10th, 1785.

TEMPLE LODGE.

Temple Lodge of Bennington was chartered by the Grand Lodge of Connecticut, the 18th of May, 1793, William Judd, Grand Master.

Except the original charter, two diplomas and one letter, nothing relating to this Lodge is known to exist. From old newspapers we learn that the Lodge regularly observed the Festivals of St. John the Evangelist and St. John the Baptist. The 9th of March, 1799, Brother John Rodgers, a member of Temple Lodge, died and was buried with Masonic honors. He had been impressed into the British army, escaped, and had resided in Bennington two years.

On Thursday morning, the 26th of December, 1799, hand bills were "handed to the citizens in various quarters of the town, requesting them to meet at the Court House on Friday, the 27th inst., (St. John's day) at one o'clock, p. m., to form in procession, and to move from thence to the meeting house in order to attend the exercises of the day, designed to pay a public tribute of respect to the memory of General George Washington." The artillery, troop of horse of Bennington and Pownal, and the light infantry company of Shaftsbury, were requested to attend in uniform. The committee of arrangement were, Isaac Tichenor, Christopher Roberts, David Robinson, John H. Buel, Andrew Selden, Abel Spencer and Gideon Olin. After the sermon by Rev. Wm. Swift, a Masonic oration was delivered by Anthony Haswell, which was printed in a 12mo. pamphlet of 20 pages. This testimonial to Washington was conducted almost exclusively by Temple Lodge.

The 10th of January, 1802, Capt. Aaron Cole of Shaftsbury was buried by the Lodge. The address upon that occasion was delivered by Anthony Haswell.

In 1803, the Lodge received a visit from Grand Master Chipman.

The meetings of the Lodge were held at inns kept by Charles Cushman and Charles Narin, also at the inn now known as the Walloomsac House.

David Porter was Master in 1795 ; David Fay in 1796-97, and 1799 ; and Andrew Selden in 1802 and 1803.

Failing to be represented for a number of years, Temple Lodge was declared extinct by the Grand Lodge Oct. 11th, 1808, having had an existence of fifteen years. The charter members were as follows :

JOSEPH FAY,

Son of Stephen Fay, the landlord of the famous Catamount Tavern, was born in Hardwick, Mass., about 1752, and came to Bennington, a member of his father's family in 1766. He was secretary of the council of safety from Sept., 1777, to March, 1778, of the State council from March, 1778, to 1794, and secretary of State also from the resignation of Thos. Chandler, Jr., to 1781. He was associated with Ira Allen in the famous negotiations with General Haldimand, Gov.-Gen. of Canada from 1780 to 1783, for which by his talents and address he was fitted. He removed to New York city in 1794, and died there of yellow fever in October, 1803. He received the second degree of Masonry in North Star Lodge, the 22d October, 1788.

DAVID RUSSELL,

A soldier of the revolution, came to Bennington some time prior to 1783, and engaged in the printing business with Anthony Haswell, under whose auspices the Vermont Gazette was founded in 1783. He was postmaster at Bennington until 1797, when, having been appointed collector of customs, he removed to Burlington, and entered upon the duties of his office and continued therein until superseded by Dr. Jabez Penniman. Mr Russell was at an early day appointed agent for the erection of the first college building for the University of Vermont. He officiated for a long period as magistrate and for a number of years clerk of the Supreme Court for Chittenden County. He died in 1843, at the age of 86, at Governor's Island, N. Y., while on a visit to his son, Dr. J. P. Russell, army surgeon. He was initiated in North Star Lodge March 8, 1787, passed July 26, 1792, raised November 1, 1792.

HON. DAVID FAY,

Brother of Joseph Fay, noticed above, was born at Hardwick, Mass., December 13, 1761, and came to Bennington with his father's family in 1766. He was in the battle of Bennington, though but 16 years old, his name being found on the roll of Capt. Samuel Robinson's company, designated as a "fifer." Was admitted to the bar in June, 1794, and was State's Attorney for four years previous to 1801. Was United States Attorney for Vermont District under Mr. Jefferson; Judge of the Supreme Court for four years from 1809, and member of the council in 1821. He married Mary Stanniford, who died December 15, 1828, leaving no children. He was initiated in North Star Lodge, March 10, 1785. He died at Bennington June 5, 1827.

JOSEPH HINSDILL

Was the first of the family to settle in Bennington, and came, it is believed, from Hardwick, Mass., prior to 1778. His wife was Hannah Bingham. Mr. Hinsdill was a very active business man. Besides conducting a large farm which lay south of the present village of North Bennington, he was an extensive dealer in woollen goods, having stores at Manchester, Arlington and Bennington. In 1786, he with Gen. Woodbridge and an Irishman by the name of Russell, who had some knowledge of the business, erected the first paper mill in Vermont. He died August 21, 1800.

DAVID PORTER.

Our knowledge of this man is briefly stated. As early as 1791, he was engaged in the mercantile business at Bennington Centre, or Old Bennington. His partners were Asahel and Elijah Strong, and, at a later date, Simeon Hathaway, Jr. In September, 1796, Mr. Porter retired from the firm. In January, 1796, he appears, from an advertisement in the Vermont Gazette, to have entered into a partnership with David Russell, in the land office business, with an office at No. 15 Burling Slip, New York city, which was managed by Mr. Porter in person. In May, 1797, the partnership was dissolved. Our information concerning this man is concluded after stating that he was Master of Temple Lodge, No. 4, in 1795.

CAPTAIN JOHN NORTON

Was born in Goshen, Conn., in 1759. At the age of sixteen he served as drummer boy in the Revolution. He married, in 1780, Lucretia Bucl and soon after removed to Williamstown, Mass. In 1785, he settled in Bennington. In 1793 he commenced the pottery business (in a small way) in the south part of the town. In 1833, the business was removed to Bennington village. The buildings were burned and rebuilt in 1845, and also in 1874. Descending from father to son, the business from its establishment has remained in the possession of the Norton family a period of eighty-five years. The writer is informed by the present proprietors that this pottery was the earliest established in America—at least they have been unable to learn of any in existence prior to 1793. Captain Norton was a very active business man, having by energy and perseverance established a business which from a small beginning has grown to one of great magnitude. He died in Bennington, 22d August, 1828.

The lodge first met at the inn kept by Samuel Foot. Early in 1795, they removed to a tavern kept by Samuel Mattocks, and from thence to the inn of E. Markham, on the north side of the river. This room was about 12 feet square, with arched roof, and was destroyed by fire September, 1875.

In 1813, the lodge removed back to the Mattocks Tavern, where it remained until 1816, or until destroyed by fire, when it once more occupied the room in the Markham Tavern until Dec., 1816, when they removed into the new three-story building owned by Thomas Hagar, built on the site of the Mattocks Tavern. Here they remained until February 2d, 1824, when they removed to a new Masonic Hall on the third floor of a new three-story block of stores and offices adjoining the Court House. This lodge room was dedicated June 24, of the same year. The original charter from Connecticut was surrendered to the Grand Lodge of Vermont in 1797 and a new one issued, which was destroyed by fire in 1816. The present charter of the lodge is dated 7 Oct., 1820, and is certified by the Grand Secretary to be a copy of the original. The records have all been preserved and are in fine condition. The first entries, title page and copy of the charter are beautifully engrossed and ornamented in the handwriting of Rev. Thomas Tolman. The cash book has an entry of 65 shillings paid Bro. Tolman in 1797, for painting a masters carpet which is supposed to be the same now hanging in the lodge room. The lodge was very fortunate in having as members some of the most distinguished men in Vermont. We notice Gamaliel Painter, the public-spirited citizen, the man who gave $13,000 to Middlebury College; Samuel Miller, Seth Storrs, Daniel Chipman, all three very able lawyers. The 3d May, 1830, the lodge suspended. Up to that time it had made 367 masons and admitted 35. The 17th Dec., 1847, the lodge was reorganized, and was represented in Grand Lodge at the session held the following January (1848). In 1849, the lodges were re-numbered and Union was assigned No. 2. Since the reorganization, the lodge has made 249 masons and admitted 39, making a total from its organization, in 1794, of 661 initiations and 74 admissions.

The charter members were as follows :

COL. JOHN CHIPMAN,

The pioneer, the first settler of the new, prosperous and beautiful town of Middlebury, was born at Salisbury, Connecticut, Oct. 22, 1744. In the Spring of 1766, he, with fifteen other young men, left Salisbury for Vermont. Their locomotive was a pair of oxen; their train a two-wheeled cart; their freight, axes, farming utensils, and provisions. There was not a house in all of Vermont, north of Manchester. Dumping the indomitable Chipman at what is now known as "Three Mile Bridge," the other fifteen pursued their way to Vergennes. During that summer he felled ten acres of stalwart monarchs of the wood. Having made his "sign-manual" upon his lot, thus securing it, he returned in the autumn to Salisbury, Connecticut. Two or three years later he married Miss Douglass, who died shortly after, leaving him a daughter. November 17th, 1772, he married Sarah Washburn, of whom we shall particularly speak further on. In the spring of 1773, he returned to Middlebury, and pitched upon his old ten-acre clearing, which was again overgrown. At the sound of the first gun of the Revolution, Chipman threw down his axe and shouldered his musket. Leaving his family in Middlebury, he, with Seth Warner and Remember Baker, joined Ethan Allen. He was present when Allen, "in the name of the Great Jehovah and the Continental Congress," seized the keys of Ticonderoga. We cannot do better than to let Chipman speak for himself. The original manuscript is in possession of his family. He says: "I turned out at the commencement of the war as a volunteer, with Col. Ethan Allen, in the spring of 1775, to take Ticonderoga and Crown Point. In May or June, I received a second lieutenant's commission in Capt. Grant's company, Col. Seth Warner's regiment; went into Canada, and was at the taking of St. Johns and Montreal; was discharged at Montreal, and returned home the first part of December. In the spring of 1776, I received a first lieutenant's commission in Capt. Smith's company, Seth Warner's regiment, and joined the army at Ticonderoga in March, 1777. I was in the retreat of the army, and was in the battle of Hubbardton. I was also in the battle of Bennington, so called, on the 16th of August of that year, and was at Saratoga at the taking of Burgoyne in October. We were ordered to St. Edward and St. George in 1778 and 1779. I was promoted to a captain and served in that capacity until October, 1787, when I was taken prisoner at St. George. I remained in this situation until the summer of 1781, when I was exchanged and remained a supernumerary until the close of the war." While at St. George, overwhelmed by numbers, he was obliged, after a desperate defense, to surrender, he tells us, October, 1780. On coming forward, begrimed with dirt and powder smoke, to deliver up himself and his forces, a British officer insultingly asked, "And who are you?" Drawing himself up to his tallest, "A gentleman, sir!" was the quick, stinging reply. Omitting many items of interest from Prof. Kellogg's address, from which we have made liberal extracts, we press on to the close of his life. At the close of the war he returned to his home. Four of his five children by his second wife were already born. Two had died. The following, related by Mrs. Loomis (Chipman's daughter), will illustrate life in that period: She says her father's family had become at one time quite destitute of all kinds of flour and meal, and her father took a bag' of grain on his shoulder and carried it on foot to Ticonderoga to be ground, and was gone several days, the family in the meantime living wholly on milk. It is stated as coming from Mrs. Chipman that, after opening the log cabin for the entertainment of travelers, she had but one towel for her guests, and when travelers came who appeared to be smart, she went to the river in the evening and washed it, to be ready for the guests in the morning. One more incident, and we are done with Mrs. Chipman: "Searching one night in the loft of her log cabin for an article she wanted, the half-inch end of her tallow candle fell out of its socket into the candlestick, and, as if by miracle, turned a complete summersault, and stood blazing end up in the top of an uncovered keg of powder. With a coolness that positively staggers belief, she drew back, gave a single look and a single thought, then stooped cautiously, laid hold of the burning stub, lifted it from the keg, and neither screamed nor fainted in the act that saved herself, her family and home from instant destruction." John Chipman was aid to Vermont's first Governor, Thomas Chittenden, also sheriff of Addison county from 1789 to 1801, days when sheriffs wore swords. He was cautious, hospitable, kind-hearted, affable, uniformly cheerful, of delicate feeling, good breeding and culture, inexorably just and inflexibly honest. He was fitted to command esteem, and he commanded it. He was a charter member of both Dorchester and Union Lodges. At the organization of the Grand Lodge, he was elected Grand Senior Warden, which office he held three years. In 1779 he was elected Grand Master. In this exalted position he served the craft until 1814. In the morning of August 28, 1829, just as the sun was coming over the green hills of Vermont, he quietly passed away. He received the first degree of Masonry in Union Lodge, No. 1. Albany, N. Y., and the second and third degrees October 19, 1779, in Masters Lodge, Albany, N. Y.

JOEL LINSLEY,

Son of Abiel Linsley, was born at Woodbury, Connecticut, February 7th, 1756. Early in 1775, he settled in Salisbury, Addison county, Vermont. When Ticonderoga was abandoned to the British in 1777, the settlers all fled to the south, and did not return until after the war. In the winter of 1784, about thirty families came into the township from Connecticut. March 2d, 1784, the town was organized, and Joel Linsley elected Town Clerk. In this position he served the town thirty-five years. He represented the town in the General Assembly from 1793 to 1797, inclusive, also in 1799, 1801, 1802, 1808 and 1809. He was Assistant Judge of Addison County Court from 1795 to 1800, and Chief Justice of the same court from 1801 to 1806, and was a member of the Constitutional Convention of 1793. Judge Linsley belonged to a class of men whose energy, enterprise and intelligence go far in forming the character of the town. He was indeed formed by nature to exert a controlling influence in any community in which he might reside. His wisdom was called into requisition by his fellow-citizens in cases where official executive tact was needed. In every office his duties were discharged with marked ability and to universal acceptance. His cheerful, humorous disposition, love of wit and anecdote, was a prominent trait of his character—a trait that has fortunately descended to his children and grandchildren. Like Col. Brush, he had a dark, swarthy complexion and very black hair. He frequently related the following incident with much enjoyment. Meeting a little boy, crying bitterly, he stopped and inquired of him what was the matter. The boy replied, "I've lost my father." "Never mind," said Judge Linsley, "I'll be your father." "I don't want ye," said the boy, "my father's a white man!" Few men enjoyed with keener relish the pleasures of social intercourse. Possessed of an inexhaustible fund of anecdote and humor and unusual conversational powers, he was the life of every circle with which he associated. The aged and young alike found him an agreeable companion. To the unfortunate he was a sympathizing friend, to virtuous indigence a cheerful benefactor, and of every judicious scheme of benevolent effort a munificent patron. By his wife, Levina Gilbert, he had eight children. His son, Charles, was an eminent lawyer; Joel Harvey, another son, studied first for the bar, was admitted and practiced for some years, afterwards studied for the ministry, commenced preaching, was settled over Park Street Church, Boston, for four years, and for ten years afterward was President of Marietta College, Ohio. D. C. Linsley, Esq., a grandson, is a distinguished civil engineer, residing in Burlington, Vermont. Though the fact of his having been a Mason is unknown to his family of the present generation, it is nevertheless a fact that he was a Mason and a charter member of Union Lodge. He never held any position in Grand Lodge, but we find him frequently present, representing his lodge. He died February 13, 1819, aged sixty-four years.

JAMES BRADLEY.

ABRAHAM BETHRONG

Came from Connecticut near the close of the last century, and settled on a farm in Middlebury adjoining that of Col. John Chipman's, on the banks of the Middlebury river. His wife was Hannah Washburn, daughter of Abisha, and sister to Col. Chipman's wife. His second wife was a widow Nichols. He had three sons and one daughter. He was by profession an operative mason, and was drowned while crossing the St. Lawrence river in a skiff near Montreal.

ABIEL LINSLEY,

Father of the Hon. Joel, was engaged previous to the Revolution in trade with the Indians, on the borders of Lake Erie. He settled in Cornwall, Vt., soon after the close of the revolutionary war. He died the 17th of May, 1800, aged 70 years.

LEWIS AND JOSEPH McDONALD,

Brothers, from Litchfield, Conn., settled in Middlebury in 1793. They at once opened a store, where they prosecuted a successful mercantile business until 1801, when they closed their business and divided their property. Joseph followed farming until 1828, when he returned to the village of Middlebury, bought a house and lot where he resided until his death in 1854, at the age of 84 years. Lewis, who had in the meantime also followed farming, returned to Middlebury village in 1818, and like his brother bought a house where he resided until his death in 1839, at the age of 72 years.

But the Grand Master, or in his absence the Deputy Grand Master, shall have power to convene Special Grand Lodges, at such time and place as he shall think fit, not contrary to the Bye-Laws of the Grand Lodge; provided that at such special Lodges to be convened after the meeting of the Grand Lodge in October next, no Bye-Law shall be made, altered or repealed.

The officers of the Grand Lodge shall be elected by ballot, at the stated annual meeting, by the members of the Grand Lodge present. A majority of the votes, either personally or by proxy, shall be necessary to constitute a choice, and the Brother in the Chair shall have the casting vote, and no other.

All the Lodges in this State shall, before the day of the next annual meeting, deposit with the Secretary of the Grand Lodge their present charters, and shall receive from the Grand Lodge new charters, to take precedence according to the seniority of their present charters. The new charters shall be granted to the present Lodges without expense, excepting the expense of engrossing, when that shall be done by the Grand Lodge.

This Constitution shall be subject to revision and amendment, when such revision and amendment shall be petitioned for by two-thirds of the Lodges in this State under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge. And when such petitions shall be presented to the Grand Lodge, it shall be the duty of the Grand Master to issue his warrant, directing each Lodge within this State, as aforesaid, to elect their representatives to meet in convention, at such time and place as the Grand Lodge shall direct. Which convention when met shall have full power to revise and amend this Constitution, in such manner as they shall think will best conduce to the interest of the craft.

Brother Ezra Clark also moved for a charter for a Lodge at Middletown, there having been a dispensation to work, for the last year: both of which were referred to Brothers Jonathan Nye, George Robinson, and Joseph D. Farnsworth, who are to report their opinion of the expediency of the measure to-morrow morning.

Brother Reuben Nash, M., of Cement Lodge, West Haven, appeared in behalf of that Lodge, and showed satisfactory reasons why the same had not heretofore been properly represented: wherefore, it was,

Brother Reuben Nash moved, That the place of holding Cement Lodge, be altered, by striking out the name "West Haven," and inserting the name of "Benson" in the charter, but had not the regular certificates yet. From the representations made and there appearing no objection, it was

TO THE M. W. GRAND LODGE OF THE STATE OF VERMONT, NOW SITTING :

Your committee, appointed on the petition of Bro. Willmot and others, and the motion of Brother Clark, with leave report, that although they are deeply impressed with the very great impropriety of granting charters of Lodges so near to each other, and are unhappy in stating, that some circumstances relative to the obtaining a dispensation at Middletown, and a neglect in Aurora Lodge in not applying sooner for a charter from this Grand Lodge, deserve some censure, yet taking into consideration the present situation thereof, and circumstances attending both, in their opinion the prayer of each ought to be granted and a charter be issued to each ; all which is submitted.

Which report was read and accepted, and Charters directed to be issued accordingly.

The following persons were nominated and chosen Assistant Deputies in their several Districts, viz.: John Woodward, No. 1; William Cooley, No. 2; Luther E. Hall, No. 3; Ozias Fuller, No. 4; David Russel, No. 5; Sylvester Day, No. 6; Jonathan Nye, No. 7; Lewis Joy, No. 8; Samuel Austin, No. 9; Samuel C. Crafts, No. 10; and Jonathan Nye, Grand Chaplain; Jesse Lull, Grand Marshal; Ozias Fuller, Grand Sword Bearer; William Storer and Joseph Farnsworth, Grand Stewards; Asa Strong, Grand Pursuivant; William Alvord and Lemuel Savage, Grand Tylers.

The Grand Lodge then called off and repaired to the Meeting House in grand procession, where an appropriate discourse was delivered by the W. Jonathan Nye, Grand Chaplain, and the exercises closed by an able and well adapted prayer by the Rev. Mr. Fowler, of Windsor; after which the brethren partook of a splendid dinner, prepared by Bro. Pettis, and were then called to labor.

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to wait on Bro. Jonathan Nye, return him the thanks of this Grand Lodge for his discourse delivered this day, present him with twenty dollars and request of him a copy for the press; the Secretary is hereby authorized and directed to procure the same to be printed at the expense of this Grand Lodge.

Resolved, That when any member of any Lodge, under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge shall be expelled, such expulsion shall be by the Secretary of such Lodge caused to be published in some newspaper in this State, with a request to the printers in the United States to insert the same in their respective papers.

Resolved, That no apprentice or craft, initiated or passed in any Lodge within the United States shall be passed or raised in any Lodge, under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge, other than that in which he was initiated, unless he have a written recommendation from the Lodge in which he was initiated or passed.

Resolved, That the several Assistant Deputies throughout this State be instructed and directed to visit the several subordinate Lodges in their respective districts, who are not now represented, as soon as may be, and publicly censure and reprimand them in behalf of this Grand Lodge, for neglecting to make proper returns, paying their dues and sending representatives at the present communication, agreeably to the ordinances of the same; and that the Grand Secretary be directed to notify each Assistant Deputy of his appointment, and of the several Lodges in each of their districts, who are delinquent.

Voted, That the M. W. John Chipman be added to the committee appointed last communication, to settle the accounts of the Treasurer and Secretary, and that said committee report at the next communication of this Grand Lodge.

Resolved, That the expense of the public dinner, with contingent expenses of this communication, be paid from the funds of this Grand Lodge, and that the M. W. Grand Master examine the bills and give orders on the Treasurer for the payment thereof.

A petition from a number of brethren of Grand Isle County, praying for a charter for a Lodge at Middle Hero, was read and referred to a committee of three, to report at the next communication; wherefore, Bros. George Robinson, Joseph D. Farnsworth and Jonathan Nye were chosen of that committee.

A petition from several brethren, for a charter for a Lodge to be established at Royalton, by the name of Rising Sun Lodge, was read, and thereupon

Resolved, That the prayer of said petition be granted, and a charter issued accordingly.

The Committee of Ways and Means pray leave to defer making a report until the next communication of this Grand Lodge, and thereupon leave was given accordingly.

Resolved, That one hundred copies of the proceedings of this Grand Lodge, at the present communication, be, by the Secretary, caused to be printed and distributed to the secular Lodges at the expense of this Grand Lodge.

Grand Lodge closed in due form.

the craft : a thing much to be deprecated by all those who are lovers of the institution of Masonry ; and whereas, it is essentially necessary for the good interest and welfare of the institution, that a Grand Visitor be appointed to examine into the state of the several Lodges annually examining the records, mode of work, &c.

Resolved, That the Grand Visitor be empowered, if in his judgment it shall be deemed expedient for the good of Masonry, to suspend such lodge as shall have neglected to conform in all things to the principles and order of Masonry, from laboring as Masons, until the next following communication of the Grand Lodge, then to be submitted to their determination. And it is also requested that the Grand Visitor visit the different Lodges during the ensuing winter, or as soon as may be convenient ; and that the said Visitor who may be appointed shall give each lodge due and timely notice, at least one communication previous to his visiting them, and that he be paid for his services by each Secular Lodge which he shall visit, a just and reasonable compensation.

Resolved, That all the officers of this Grand Lodge be provided with suitable sashes, the jewels provided with new ribbons, and such other jewels provided as this Grand Lodge is deficient of, and that the Grand Treasurer be appointed a committee for that purpose, to defray the expense accruing out of the funds of the Grand Lodge.

Ordered, That the Grand Secretary cause to be published in pamphlets, and distributed to all the Lodges under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge, the proceedings thereof for the years 5808, 5809, 5810 and 5811, and that the Secretary provide for the Secular Lodges blank returns and certificates, and forward the same to the different Lodges within the term of three months.

Ordered, That the Treasurer of this Lodge pay Bro. John Woodworth twelve dollars.

Resolved, By this Grand Lodge, that it may be considered the duty of the several Masters of the Secular Lodges under this jurisdiction, that whenever a member of any Lodge over which he may preside shall neglect to attend the Lodge of which he is a member for more than three successive regular communications, to summon such member to attend, and show cause, if any he have, why he should not be expelled, suspended or otherwise dealt with.

The W. Charles K. Williams was elected Grand Visitor.

R. W. M. Field, Deputy Grand Master, was appointed to wait on the Grand Chaplain, to return the thanks of the Grand Lodge for his elegant and Masonic discourse this day delivered, and request of him a copy for the press.

Resolved, That if the Grand Chaplain shall deliver a copy of the discourse this day delivered, that three hundred copies shall be published, and distributed to the Secular Lodges, under the inspection of the Grand Secretary, and the expenses be paid out of the Treasury of this Lodge; and that the sum of twenty dollars be paid out of the treasury, as a present to the Grand Chaplain.

Resolved, Bro. Jonathan Nye's account to Franklin Lodge, No. 10, be allowed, and that the Treasurer pay Bro. Nye twelve dollars, and the same be charged to the account of Franklin Lodge.

representations,	$170 00
From Danby for Charter,	20 00
Paid the same to the M. W. Grand Master,	$190 00

CONSTITUTION

OF THE GRAND LODGE OF THE STATE OF VERMONT.

We, delegates from the several Lodges in the State of Vermont, fully authorized and empowered by our respective Lodges for the purpose, do constitute, ordain and establish the following as the constitution of a Grand Lodge in this State :

That, the Grand Lodge shall consist of a Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, Grand Senior and Grand Junior Warden, Grand Treasurer, Grand Secretary, two Grand Deacons; the Master and Wardens for the time being of the several Lodges under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge; and all Past Grand Masters, Deputy Grand Masters, Grand Senior and Grand Junior Wardens, Grand Treasurers, Grand Secretaries, Grand Stewards and Grand Deacons of the Grand Lodge, and all past Masters of regular Lodges under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge.

This Grand Lodge, organized as aforesaid, shall be styled and known by the name of "The Grand Lodge, of the Most Ancient and Honorable Society of Free and Accepted Masons, for the State of Vermont, independent, and governed solely by its own Laws."

The Master and Wardens of any Lodge under the jurisdiction of this Lodge, who cannot personally attend the Grand Lodge, shall have the privilege of constituting a proxy, which proxy shall have the same number of votes as his constituents, and such proxy shall be a Master Mason.

A Grand Lodge shall be holden on the Friday next succeeding the second Thursday of October, annually, at such place as the Legislature shall convene (until the Grand Lodge shall order otherwise, and shall have given three months' notice of such alteration to all the Lodges in this State). But the Grand Master or in his absence the Deputy Grand Master shall have power to convene special Grand Lodges, at such time and place as he shall think fit, not contrary to the by-laws of the Grand Lodge; provided, that at such special Lodges, to be convened after the meeting of the Grand Lodge, in October next, no by-law shall be made, altered or repealed.

The officers of the Grand Lodge shall be elected by ballot, at the stated annual meeting, by the members of the Grand Lodge present: a majority of the votes, either personally or by proxy, shall be necessary to constitute a choice; and the brother in the chair shall have the casting vote, and no other.

The Grand Lodge shall have power to constitute new Lodges, by patents under their seal, and the signature of the Grand Master, or, in his absence, the Deputy Grand Master, for the time being, attested by their Secretary, under such restrictions as they shall think proper; and to establish an uniform mode of working throughout the State; strictly adhering to the ancient land marks, usages and customs of Masonry, which are on no account to be removed or defaced.

The Grand Lodge shall have power to require, from time to time, from the several Lodges under their jurisdiction, such sums of money as they shall think necessary, to be appropriated for the benefit of the Craft; which requisition and appropriation shall be made by two-thirds of the voters present, voting as aforesaid at their stated annual meeting only.

In case of the death, resignation or absence of the acting Grand Master, the next officer in rank shall take the chair, and possess all the powers of the Grand Master, during such vacancy or absence, until the next annual election.

The Grand Lodge shall have power to make bye-laws, and all other powers necessary and proper to an independent Grand Lodge, not inconsistent with this constitution.

The Grand Lodge shall have power to hear and determine all appeals, and decide in all disputes between the different Lodges under their jurisdiction.

The Grand Lodge, upon granting a Charter incorporating a new Lodge, may demand such reasonable fees as they shall establish by their bye-laws.

All the Lodges in this State shall, before the day of the next annual meeting, deposit with the Secretary of the Grand Lodge their present Charters, and shall receive from the Grand Lodge new Charters, to take precedence according to the seniority of their present Charters. The new Charters shall be granted to the present Lodges without expense, excepting the expense of engrossing, when that shall be done by the Grand Lodge.

This constitution shall be subject to revision and amendment when such revision and amendment shall be petitioned for by two-thirds of the Lodges in this State, under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge. And when such petitions shall be presented to the Grand Lodge, it shall be the duty of the Grand Master to issue his warrant, directing each Lodge within this State, as aforesaid, to elect their representative; to meet in convention at such time and place as the Grand Lodge shall direct; which convention, when met, shall have full power to revise and amend this constitution, in such manner as they shall think will best conduce to the interests of the craft.

The delegates present, before they dissolve this convention shall meet and choose the officers of the Grand Lodge, who shall, when elected, possess all the powers of officers of a Grand Lodge, until the next meeting of this

Grand Lodge, as by this constitution established, and until new officers are chosen in their stead.

Done in convention of all the Lodges in this State, fully authorized and empowered, at Rutland, this fourteenth day of October, Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four, and in the year of Masonry 5794.

ART. 2. When any person is proposed to be made a Mason who resides in another town where a Lodge is holden, or nearer any regular Lodge than that in which he is proposed, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Lodge to write to such other Lodge, to know if they have ever refused him admission, and if they know any just and lawful reason why he ought not to be made a Mason; and to their report, due weight and consideration ought to be given.

ART. 3. No person shall be initiated at the same meeting of the Lodge at which his petition is presented, or passed at the same meeting he is initiated, or raised at the same meeting he is passed, that the members may have time to be fully satisfied as to the character of the candidate.

ART. 6. No brother shall be admitted a member of any Lodge under this jurisdiction, until he has obtained the sublime degree of a Master Mason.

Nevertheless a stranger may be honored with a funeral procession (if a Master Mason) by any Lodge if they judge proper. Plain white aprons with white gloves and white stockings are proper to be worn at funerals.

ART. 11. Every Lodge has an inherent right to make bye-laws and regulations for their own government and concerns. Provided always: That such laws and regulations are conformable to the principles of the order and usages of Masons, and the laws and regulations of the Grand Lodge of Vermont.

The several District Deputy Grand Masters present were called upon, and made their reports.

Agreeable to a standing regulation, the following brethren were appointed the committee of charity for the ensuing year, to wit: Robinson Smiley, Nathan P. Fletcher, Nathaniel Chamberlain, Jonathan Barron, and Silas Bowen.

The petition of John Wakefield and others, praying for a charter for the formation of a lodge at Waitsfield, by the name of Hiram Lodge, presented by Brother John Wakefield, and also the petition of a number of brethren praying for a charter for the formation of a lodge in Townshend, in the County of Windham, by the name of White Stone, presented by Brother Munnis Kenney, were read and referred to Brothers Samuel Hurlburt, L. The committee appointed at the last communication to examine and revise the bye-laws of the Grand Lodge made their report, which was read and accepted.

The Grand Lodge then proceeded to the choice of officers for the year ensuing, and the following were duly elected:

M. W. JONATHAN NYE,	Grand Master.

R. W. LEMUEL WHITNEY,	Grand Senior Warden.

The Grand Lodge convened agreeably to adjournment, and called to labor. Present as yesterday. Prayer by the Grand Chaplain.

Communications from Foreign Grand Lodges were presented by the Grand Secretary, and referred to a committee of the following brethren: Lemuel Whitney, Nathan P. Fletcher and Munnis Kenney.

The committee appointed to take into consideration the report of the District Deputy Grand Master of the 7th Masonic District, relative to Franklin Lodge, made report as follows:

Your committee to whom was referred the communication of the District Deputy Grand Master, No. 7, with respect to the deplorable situation of Franklin Lodge, No. 10, as it respects their want of discipline, divisions, and immorality of the members, etc., respectfully report: That so far as your committee have been able to obtain information, they find the representation of the District Deputy Grand Master of said District substantially correct, and are therefore of opinion that this Grand Lodge ought to adopt immediate measures to withdraw from said Franklin Lodge their charter.

P. WHITE,
For Committee.

Which report was read and accepted, and the committee requested to draft a resolution accordingly, who further reported as follows:

Your committee appointed to devise and report the measures proper to be adopted by this Grand Lodge for taking from Franklin Lodge, No. 10, their charter, agreeable to a vote already passed, respectfully recommend, that the M. W. Grand Master be requested (should it be convenient for him) to repair to said Lodge, and should he be of opinion that the good of Masonry requires, demand, in the name of the Grand Lodge, their charter, jewels, etc., and should it not be convenient for him, that the District Deputy Grand Master for Masonic District, No. 7, be directed by the M. W. Grand Master to perform the same service.

P. WHITE,
For Committee.

Read and accepted.

The committee to whom was referred certificates, etc., respecting Bro. Barney, made report as follows:

That they had examined Bro. Barney on the three first degrees of Masonry, and find him to be well acquainted with the Lectures, according to the most approved method of work in the United States, and believe that he may be advantageously employed by the Lodges and brethren who may wish for his services; but as many of the Lodges in this State are already well acquainted with the several Masonic Lectures, we do not believe it would be consistent to appoint a Grand Lecturer to go through the State, as the several Lodges have to pay the District Deputy Grand Masters for their attendance. We therefore propose to the Grand Lodge that they give Bro. Barney letters of recommendation to all Lodges and brethren wherever he may wish to travel, as an unfortunate brother deprived of his health, and unable to procure a living by the common avocations of life, but who is well qualified to give useful Masonic information to any who may wish for his services.

A. ROBBINS,
For Committee

Read and accepted.

The committee to whom was referred the petition of John Wakefield and others, and brethren in Townshend, for charters for the formation of Lodges in Waitsfield and Townshend, beg leave to report:

That in their opinion the prayer of the brethren in the town of Waitsfield and vicinity, for the establishment of a Lodge in that town ought to be granted, on condition of their complying with the by-laws of this Grand Lodge, by obtaining the consent of two-thirds of the Lodges in that District; and your committee at the same time beg leave to report on the subject of the petition from the brethren in Townshend, that in their opinion the prayer of the petition ought to be granted, on condition of their obtaining the consent of the four nearest Lodges in the 8th Masonic District in this State. Also, that a list of the members expelled or suspended from the Lodges mentioned in the communications mentioned in the communications above alluded to, be subjoined to the proceedings of this Grand Lodge, for the benefit of the Lodges under its jurisdiction.

Which report was read and accepted.

The committee to whom was referred so much of the report of the District Deputy Grand Master, for District, No. 4, as relates to Washington Lodge, No. 21, reported that in their opinion said Lodge as a body have neglected and deserted the true and genuine principles that ought to govern and direct them: that they have so managed and conducted as to cast a stigma upon the Fraternity, are fast levelling the respect which naturally attaches itself to discreet and upright Masons, and that their charter ought to be withdrawn, and their labors suspended until such period as this Grand Lodge, upon due application, shall see fit to restore them to their former privileges. The same committee made report on the petition of Abner Keeler, Nathaniel Healy, Alson Landon and other brethren, "that they are of opinion that from the local situation of the petitioning brethren, it would be advantageous to the interests of the craft to have a lodge constituted in their vicinity. Yet they not having complied exactly with the requisitions of the by-laws of the Grand Lodge in procuring the approbation of the Lodges in their vicinity, and for other reasons, the committee are of opinion that the prayer thereof ought not at present to be granted, and that the petitioners have leave to withdraw their petition."

TO THE M. W. GRAND LODGE, NOW CONVENED :

The committee to whom was referred the memorial of sundry brethren of Independence Lodge, No. 40, respectfully report: That having heard the parties and given the subject due consideration, they regret that such are the present appearances that unless the Grand Lodge shall be so fortunate as to adopt measures which shall conciliate the brethren of said Lodge, the interests of Masonry, in that vicinity, will materially suffer.

The Lodge appears to be nearly divided into equal numbers, and the statements made to us, though very little variant, and the dispute conducted with mutual candor and masonic forbearance, yet each party appears tenacious of the object in view. We are unable to point out any course by which this dispute can at this time be brought to an end, but would recommend that the M. W. Grand Master appoint a committee, consisting of a disinterested brother from each of the three adjoining Lodges in this State, who shall meet, after notice to the Lodge, and hear and determine the dispute between the members of said Lodge, and the determination of said committee shall be final when made and reported to the Grand Lodge, which report shall be made at our next annual communication.

TO THE M. W. GRAND LODGE, NOW CONVENED:

The committee to whom was referred a communication from the Grand Lodge of New York, relating to certain difficulties existing between brethren of Aurora Lodge, at Hampton, New York, and Morning Star Lodge, at Poultney, Vermont, respectfully report, that so far as they have been able to obtain facts relating to the subject, it appears to your committee that in 1798 a charter was granted to sundry brethren in Hampton and Poultney, by the Grand Lodge of New York, under the name of Aurora Lodge; that in 1807, after the organization of the Grand Lodge of Vermont, it was agreed by said Aurora Lodge to give up their said charter under the Grand Lodge of New York, and take out a charter under the authority of the Grand Lodge of Vermont, under the name of Morning Star Lodge, which was granted to them, and the brethren of Hampton and Poultney harmoniously continued to work together under said Vermont charter until within about three years past, when the brethren of Hampton petitioned for and obtained from the Grand Lodge of New York a revival of their old charter under the name of Aurora Lodge; since which time, said Aurora Lodge have demanded the jewels and funds from said Morning Star Lodge, which have been refused. Your committee can devise no method by which said difficulties can now be settled, but would recommend to this Grand Lodge that the M. W. Grand Master appoint a committee of one brother to repair to said Aurora and Morning Star Lodges, collect the facts and report to this Grand Lodge at the next communication.

All which is respectfully submitted.

MARTIN FIELD,
For Committee.

CONSTITUTION

We, delegates from the several Lodges in the State of Vermont, fully authorized and empowered by our respective Lodges for the purpose, do constitute, ordain and establish the following as the constitution of a Grand Lodge in this State :

That the Grand Lodge shall consist of a Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, Grand Senior and Grand Junior Warden, Grand Treasurer, Grand Secretary, two Grand Deacons ; the Master and Wardens for the time being of the several Lodges under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge ; and all Past Grand Masters, Deputy Grand Masters, Grand Senior and Grand Junior Wardens, Grand Treasurers, Grand Secretaries, Grand Stewards and Grand Deacons of the Grand Lodge, and all Past Masters of regular Lodges under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge.

This Grand Lodge, organized as aforesaid, shall be styled and known by the name of "The Grand Lodge of the Most Ancient and Honorable Society of Free and Accepted Masons, for the State of Vermont, independent, and governed by its own Laws."

The Master and Wardens of any Lodge under the jurisdiction of this Lodge, who cannot personally attend the Grand Lodge, shall have the privilege of constituting a proxy, which proxy shall have the same number of votes as his constituents, and such proxy shall be a Master Mason.

A Grand Lodge shall be holden on the Friday next preceding the second Thursday of October, annually, at such place as the Legislature shall convene (until the Grand Lodge shall order otherwise, and shall have given three months' notice of such alteration to all the Lodges in this State). But the Grand Master or in his absence the Deputy Grand Master shall have power to convene special Grand Lodges, at such time and place as he shall think fit, not contrary to the by-laws of the Grand Lodge ; provided, that at such special Lodges, to be convened after the meeting of the Grand Lodge, in October next, no by-law shall be made, altered or repealed.

The officers of the Grand Lodge shall be elected by ballot, at the stated annual meeting, by the members of the Grand Lodge present ; a majority of the votes, either personally or by proxy, shall be necessary to constitute a choice ; and the brother in the chair shall have the casting vote, and no other.

The Grand Lodge shall have power to constitute new Lodges, by patents under their seal, and the signature of the Grand Master, or, in his absence, the Deputy Grand Master for the time being, attested by their Secretary, under such restrictions as they shall think proper ; and to establish an uniform mode of working throughout the State; strictly adhering to the ancient landmarks, usages and customs of Masonry, which are on no account to be removed or defaced.

The Grand Lodge shall have power to require, from time to time, from the several Lodges under their jurisdiction, such sums of money as they shall think necessary to be appropriated for the benefit of the craft ; which requisition and appropriation shall be made by two-thirds of the voters present, voting as aforesaid at their stated annual meeting only.

In case of the death, resignation or absence of the acting Grand Master, the next officer in rank shall take the chair, and possess all the powers of the Grand Master, during such vacancy or absence, until the next annual election.

The Grand Lodge shall have power to make by-laws, and all other powers necessary and proper to an independent Grand Lodge, not inconsistent with this constitution.

The Grand Lodge shall have power to hear and determine all appeals, and decide in all disputes between the different Lodges under their jurisdiction.

The Grand Lodge, upon granting a Charter incorporating a new Lodge, may demand such reasonable fees as they shall establish by their by-laws.

All the Lodges in this State shall, before the day of the next annual meeting, deposit with the Secretary of the Grand Lodge their present Charters, and shall receive from the Grand Lodge new Charters, to take precedence according to the seniority of their present Charters. The new Charters shall be granted to the present Lodges without expense, excepting the expense of engrossing, when that shall be done by the Grand Lodge.

This constitution shall be subject to revision and amendment when such revision and amendment shall be petitioned for by two-thirds of the Lodges in this State, under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge. And when such petitions shall be presented to the Grand Lodge, it shall be the duty of the Grand Master to issue his warrant, directing each Lodge within this State, as aforesaid, to elect their representative, to meet in convention at such time and place as the Grand Lodge shall direct ; which convention, when met, shall have full power to revise and amend this constitution, in such manner as they shall think will best conduce to the interests of the craft.

The delegates present, before they dissolve this convention, shall meet and choose the officers of the Grand Lodge, who shall, when elected, possess all the powers of officers of a Grand Lodge, until the next meeting of this

Grand Lodge, as by this constitution established, and until new officers are chosen in their stead.

Done in convention of all the Lodges in this State, fully authorized and empowered, at Rutland, this fourteenth day of October, Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four, and in the year of Masonry 5794.

ART. 2. When any person is proposed to be made a Mason who resides in another town where a Lodge is holden, or nearer any regular Lodge than that in which he is proposed, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Lodge to write to such other Lodge, to know if they have ever refused him admission, and if they know any just and lawful reason why he ought not to be made a Mason; and to their report, due weight and consideration ought to be given.

ART. 3. No apprentice or craft initiated or passed in any Lodge within the United States, shall be passed or raised in any Lodge under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge, other than that in which he was initiated, unless he has a written recommendation from the Lodge in which he was initiated or passed.

ART. 6. No Lodge under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge shall hereafter take notes of hand for initiating, passing or raising fees, or grant any time of credit therefor. All such fees shall be paid to said Lodge at the time any candidate shall receive the degree.

ART. 7. In future, no petition for the removal of a Lodge from the place where it is located shall be sustained in Grand Lodge unless such petition be sanctioned by the District Deputy Grand Master of the District where such Lodge is situated, and the approbation of the Lodge nearest the place where the said Lodge is intended to be held, the same being signified in writing to the Grand Lodge.

ART. 8. The committee appointed at the last Grand communication to visit Independence Lodge at Orwell, made the following report, viz.:

TO THE M. W. GRAND LODGE OF VERMONT, TO BE CONVENED AT MONTPELIER, ON TUESDAY PRECEDING THE SECOND THURSDAY IN OCTOBER, A. L. 5822.

The committee appointed at the last Grand Lodge to attend to certain difficulties existing in Independence Lodge at Orwell, beg leave to report: That according to previous appointment they met said Lodge at Bro. Willis Abel's, in said Orwell, on the 27th of December, 5821, and proceeded to attend to the business for which they were appointed. The principal cause of the existing difficulties appeared to be the removal of the Lodge from the house of Bro. Willis Abel, in the east part of Orwell, to Mr. Boyington's, near the meeting house, a distance of almost four miles, on a due west course from where the Lodge was first established. This removal, and the manner in which it took place (being simply by one vote and that an entered apprentice) was the cause of the memorial to the last Grand Lodge. It was conceded by all that the Lodge was first located in the east part of Orwell, and that for their better accommodation a number of worthy brethren left their own Lodges to unite with this Lodge; that had the Lodge been first established at Bro. Boyington's it would not have been their wish to have left their own Lodges, to join the Lodge in Orwell; that for several years the Lodge had continued its labors at Bro. Abel's, but some time before the sitting of the last Grand Lodge, by a single vote of one in the majority, the Lodge was removed as above stated.

The committee found the Lodge nearly equally divided in their wishes respecting the places of meeting.

Those in favor of the removal contended that the motion was carried fairly, because it was mentioned at a previous meeting, that at that time the sense of the Lodge would be taken on that subject; and although the vote was carried by an entered apprentice, yet in some instances apprentices had been permitted to vote, and they saw no reason why they might not vote on this question.

Those opposed to the removal contended, that, though apprentices had been permitted by said Lodge to vote in some cases, yet, in a question which so deeply affected the feelings and interests of the brethren, they ought to have been excluded from voting. It appeared further to the committee, that when the Lodge was first established in Orwell, there was no suitable room in which the brethren could convene; that Bro. Abel, having it in contemplation to build, did actually, at some considerable inconvenience to himself, build one year sooner than he otherwise would have done, in order to accommodate the Lodge; and although this was not done at the request of the Lodge, but at the suggestion of a number of the brethren, yet those opposed to the removal were of opinion that it was not doing justice to Bro. Abel, so soon to take the Lodge from his house. In favor of removal it was further urged that Bro. Boyington's, in consequence of great accessions to the Lodge from the west, and few comparatively from the east, had become nearly the centre of the Lodge. Your committee, after hearing all the arguments for and against the removal, unanimously came to the following resolution, and did recommend it to said Lodge, to hold their future meetings at Bro. Abel's and Mr. Boyington's one year in each place, to commence at Bro. Abel's on the first day of January, 5822, as that was their next regular communication. The committee were happy to find that the brethren opposed to the removal manifested their entire satisfaction with the decision, and it would have afforded the committee much gratification had corresponding feelings been manifested by the brethren from the west part of the Lodge. While the committee have endeavored faithfully to discharge their duty, and to recommend a course the most likely to restore harmony to that beloved branch of the Masonic family, should it not have this effect, it will be to them a source of the deepest regret.

For and in behalf of the committee,

EDWARD EELLS.

Which report was read and accepted.

That they find a special communication from the corresponding Secretary of the Grand Lodge of South Carolina, communicating the expulsion of Dr. Richard Murray, of St. Augustine, for unmasonic conduct. They also find a similar letter from the Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Louisiana, communicating the expulsion of Henry Beebe, for the murder of Nicholas Oddo at the Orleans Theatre.

Your committee also find that the proceedings of the Grand Lodges of Massachusetts, New York, Virginia, the District of Columbia, Ohio, Missouri, South Carolina and Louisiana at their last regular communications are fully communicated. To these papers they have given as much attention as the brevity of their time would admit and have discovered no particular subject in them, which in their opinion demands, at this time, the particular attention of the Grand Lodge.

Your committee also find communications from the Grand Lodges of Mississippi and Louisiana, containing the signatures of their respective Grand officers.

Your committee respectfully suggest to this Grand Lodge the expediency of having a regular list of expulsions, suspensions, and restorations of members throughout the United States, so far as they can be ascertained from the communications of foreign Grand Lodges. They therefore recommend that such a list be made by the Grand Secretary, recorded on the Lodge book and printed in the journals for the information of subordinate Lodges.

All which is respectfully submitted.

D. CHACE,
For Committee.

Which resolution was adopted.

Your committee to whom was referred the report of the District Deputy Grand Master for District No. 5, beg leave to report that they have attended to the duties assigned them, and find that our Brother Elder Robert Hastings hath been excluded from his desk by a majority of the church of his late charge, and his temporal support as a public teacher in that place withdrawn, and that for no other accusation than that our Brother was received as a member of the masonic family, and became a brother among us. Your committee further learn that our brother by his daily walk exhibits a firm attachment, not only to the Christian church, but also to the masonic family, and that he is like many other spiritual teachers in a great degree destitute of this world's goods.

Your committee are happy to hear that our Brother Hastings has the cordial and hearty sympathies of most of his acquaintances, together with some pecuniary aid.

Your committee have no doubt but they express the feelings of every member of this M. W. Grand Lodge, when they say that it is with no ordinary surprise and with deep regret they are informed that any who love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity should in this enlightened age, this land of civil and religious liberty, when the walls of partition are rapidly decaying and brotherly love extending suffer their honest and earnest (though your committee believe mistaken) zeal for the cause of our common Lord and Saviour to impede the growing harmony. And in conclusion, your committee recommend the adoption of the following resolution :

IN GRAND LODGE, October 13, A. L. 5824.

MOST WORSHIPFUL GRAND MASTER AND BRETHREN :

To have so conducted in the several stations I have held in the Grand Lodge for sixteen years past, and particularly while presiding as Grand Master, as generally to meet the approbation of my brethren, is all I could have wished and more than I could have expected. If, however, I may have deserved the approbation your resolution declares, my most sanguine wishes are realized, and I retire from the chair with all the good wishes and warm attachment to the Institution, and the individual members of this Grand Lodge, which have ever pervaded my heart, and with grateful feelings to the members of the Grand Lodge for their urbanity towards me.

I sincerely hope that this Grand Lodge may continue to be active in the duty of disseminating the true principles of Masonry, which I consider the hand-maid of religion and morality and shall ever endeavor to promote its best interests and to associate with its members on all occasions in which the benevolent objects of the fraternity may be promoted.

James Farnsworth has received from the funds of the Grand Lodge sixty-one dollars for the purpose of procuring a plate, but has not succeeded. He has, however, been at the expense of fifteen dollars, which ought to be deducted from the sixty-one dollars and that Bro. Farnsworth return into the Treasury, forty-six dollars, and on his so doing, on request, that he be discharged from any further duty in this behalf and receive the thanks of this Grand Lodge for his attention to the subject.

Which report was read and concurred in.

The committee to whom were referred the communications from foreign Grand Lodges made the following report :

TO THE M. W. GRAND LODGE, NOW IN SESSION.

Your committee to whom were referred sundry communications from foreign Grand Lodges, respectfully report, that on examination they find that they principally relate to the ordinary transactions and proceedings of the respective Grand Lodges, and as such are not of sufficient importance to require the particular attention of this Grand Lodge. Your committee, however, find among said papers communications from the Grand Lodges of New Hampshire, New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia and Ohio, upon the subject of the erection of a monument at Mount Vernon to the memory of our deceased brother, George Washington, and requesting the aid and co-operation of this Grand Lodge in the accomplishment of said object. Your committee upon mature consideration of this subject are of opinion that it is inexpedient for this Grand Lodge to adopt any measures to carry into effect the object proposed in said communications. In coming to this conclusion, your committee have been influenced by a belief that the accomplishment of the object proposed would establish a precedent injurious in its consequences ; that the appropriation of Masonic funds for that object is unwarranted by the principles of Masonry, and that the present state of the funds of this Grand Lodge, if no other objection existed, would preclude their furnishing the aid solicited.

All which is submitted.

M. CHITTENDEN,

For Committee.

Which report was read and concurred in.

The committee on petitions for new Lodges made report on the petition of sundry brethren in Coventry, that in their opinion the prayer thereof ought to be granted ; which report was concurred in, and a charter ordered to be issued, constituting said brethren a regular Lodge by the name of Magog Lodge.

The same committee made report on the petition of sundry brethren in Cambridge, that in their opinion the prayer thereof ought to be granted; which report was concurred in, and a charter ordered to be issued constituting said brethren a regular Lodge, by the name of Cambridge Union Lodge.

The memorial of Independence Lodge, No. 40, charging Washington Lodge, No. 21, with violation of the 2d article of the general regulations of the Grand Lodge in the initiation of Aaron Ketchum, Joseph Warner and Mason Knappen, of Sudbury, and Harry J. Horton, of Hubbardtown, was read and referred to a committee of three, viz.: Brothers Eldridge, Sawyer and Billings.

On motion,

Resolved, That it shall be the duty of the Grand Secretary, annually, as soon as may be after the close of each annual communication of the Grand Lodge, to publish such number of copies of the journal of the same as he may deem expedient, and distribute the same among foreign Grand Lodges, the subordinate Lodges and officers of the Grand Lodge.

The committee to whom was referred the memorial of Independence Lodge, against Washington Lodge, No. 21, made the following report :

That the facts set forth in said communication are admitted to be substantially true by the W. Master of Washington Lodge, No. 21, who appeared before them. The proceedings of said Washington Lodge, therefore, in initiating the four candidates named in said communication are in violation of the 2d article of the general regulations of this Grand Lodge. Your committee, however, are satisfied that that violation was unintentional on the part of said Washington Lodge, and that no interruption to the harmony which has heretofore subsisted between said Lodges, their officers and members, individually, has resulted therefrom. Your committee, therefore, do not perceive the necessity of recommending any further proceedings on the subject.

Which report was concurred in.

The committee on petitions for new Lodges made report on the petition of King Hiram Lodge: That in their opinion the prayer thereof ought to be granted and recommend the adoption of the following resolution, viz.:

Resolved, That the District Deputy Grand Master for District No. 6, admonish Morning Dawn Lodge for their conduct in initiating a candidate who lived within the jurisdiction of another Lodge, as mentioned in his report of the present year.

On the petition of Olive Branch Lodge, No. 11, it was resolved that whenever said Lodge shall procure the approbation of the nearest Lodge for the removal of said Lodge to Weston, the M. W. Grand Master be authorized to issue a dispensation for that purpose.

The committee appointed at the last grand communication to settle and adjust the matters of difference and controversy between Aurora Lodge, at Hampton, N. Y., and Morning Star Lodge, at Poultney, made report of the following award between said Lodges, viz.:

We, the undersigned, having been appointed a committee by the Grand Lodge of the State of Vermont, to settle and adjust the claims of Aurora Lodge, in Hampton, in the State of New York, against Morning Star Lodge, in Poultney, in the State of Vermont, having attended to the business of our appointment at Daniel Parsons', in said town of Poultney, do adjudge from the evidence exhibited before us by a committee appointed by each of said Lodges, that the said Morning Star Lodge pay to the said Aurora Lodge the sum of eighty dollars, and that each of said Lodges pay an equal proportion of the expenses of this decision.

On communications from foreign Grand Lodges, Bros. Haswell, Hall, and Hyde.

On committee on petitions for new Lodges, Bros. Proctor, Parish and Shedd.

Sundry communications from foreign Grand Lodges were presented and referred to the proper committees.

A communication from Bro. John L. Hart, of Philadelphia, addressed to the Grand Secretary, and enquiring whether a charter for a Lodge of colored Masons to be located in said city would be granted by this Grand Lodge, was presented and referred to the committee on petitions for new Lodges.

The petition of sundry brethren of Independence Lodge, No. 40, praying that said Lodge may be permitted to hold their communications continually at Bro. Jeremiah Boynton's, in Orwell, was referred to the same committee.

The Grand Lodge was called from labor till 2 o'clock, P. M.

Two o'clock, P. M.—The Grand Lodge was called to labor, and the several District Deputy Grand Masters made report of the state of the subordinate Lodges in their respective Districts, which were read.

The M. W. Grand Master, the Hon. Phineas White, then rose and addressed the Grand Lodge as follows:

MY BRETHREN:

In retiring from the station wherein you have been pleased by your suffrages repeatedly to place me, a sense of duty as well as of gratitude impels me to acknowledge your kindness and respect in sustaining me in the performance of the various duties which have been imposed upon me.

And permit me to congratulate you on the harmony and good feeling which have generally prevailed at the communications of this Grand Lodge, during the period I have had the honor of presiding over your deliberations.

On this occasion, also, it probably being the last and only opportunity of addressing, or meeting you as members of this Grand Lodge I may ever enjoy, permit me to urge upon your consideration the great objects of the Masonic Institution.

The great ends in view are to make men better and happier. In promoting these objects, contributing to the wants, and alleviating the sufferings of the body, embrace the least of Masonic duties. Enlightening the understanding, cultivating the mental faculties, and improving the moral virtues of men, and teaching them their duties and relations to each other, in connection with their religious obligations, embrace the great and more important duties of Masons.

As individuals, we are taught to improve our powers and faculties in a manner most effectually to advance our own good, and to contribute to the prosperity and happiness of others. Collectively, as a body or society of men, we are to unite our energies, not only in promoting the happiness of each other, and the prosperity of the Masonic institution, but in alleviating human woe; in expelling ignorance and moral darkness, and dispensing light and happiness through the world.

The observance of ceremonies, putting on badges, and adhering to ancient rights and usages, will alone never constitute the true and upright Mason.

Our duty to ourselves as individuals teaches us in the first place to hold in the highest veneration the All-wise, Bountiful and Supreme Architect of the universe, from whom cometh every good and perfect gift; and to feel our entire dependence upon Him, and to cultivate the powers and faculties with which He has endowed us, in the best possible manner, lopping off all excrescences from the heart, stifling unhallowed desires and propensities, banishing from our bosoms pride, ill-will, hatred, malice and revenge, and in cultivating humility, gentleness, and pure love, directing all our energies to the promotion of the greatest sum of human happiness.

By our duty to each other, we are taught to love our brethren, to be charitable and kind, alleviating their sufferings, and contributing to their wants; to be tender of their characters and reputations, suggesting in their behalf the most favorable circumstances; and are they justly reprehended, we are bound to let the world know how Masons love one another. We are to be quiet and peaceable in subjection to the powers that be.

How far as Masons, we live up to these duties, you, my brethren, can judge. Looking abroad and beholding the heart-burnings, animosities and contentions which are too common among Masons, and the vile, underhanded measures, not unfrequently taken by Masons to slander their brethren, and by falsehood to destroy their fair fame, to the total disregard of all the most sacred Masonic obligations, the heart of every true Mason sickens within him, whilst he turns disgusted with the name of Masonry. But there is a redeeming spirit in the institution. Its principles are correct, founded upon a broad and liberal basis. Go home, then, to your Lodges, my brethren, and let every one be taught to reform one. Call back the brethren to first principles. Banish all dissensions among them. Cut off all unworthy disorderly members, set your faces against all irregular habits and vicious practices, and never suffer any party contentions of any description to have place among you; and reject damnable heresies, if any have crept in. Be more cautious with respect to your initiations. Be more zealous and persevering in increasing the virtues, usefulness and respectability of your members, than in multiplying their numbers. Let your Lodges be what they ought, in fact to be, a band of brothers, striving to promote each other's happiness, without hypocrisy and without partiality. Then will true Masonry flourish and shine forth with the brightness of the sun, and will cheer and vivify with its influence the intellectual and moral world.

By our duty to those without, we are taught to be not weary in well doing. So far as in our power lies we are to promote the general welfare and happiness of man. Our charities and kind offices are not to be confined exclusively to our brethren, though they have the first claim, but are to extend to the relief of the distressed, oppressed and afflicted of all nations.

At this enlightened period of the world, when so much is doing to enlighten, happify and ameliorate the condition of the human race, can any true Mason be found, in this land of plenty, of liberal principles and of free government, who will pretend to say, that the charities of Masons must be confined solely to the relief of poor and needy brethren, their widows and orphans, when, after supplying their wants, we have still abundant funds to spare. It is hardly possible that any one can be found who entertains so contracted and illiberal views of the principles of the ancient and venerable institution of Freemasonry.

At an age when so much is doing to extend civilization, a knowledge of the arts, the lights of science, and above all a knowledge of the Gospel of Peace and divine truth through the world, shall Freemasons, who pretend to so much liberality and benevolence, remain idle, with folded arms, looking on with cold indifference, without extending a helping hand? Not so! Those who ought to be first and foremost in this great work of reforming and happifying the world, will not remain inactive.

But, in imitation of that ancient and venerable Mason, whose memory and exalted virtues for many succeeding ages have been and still are, held in the highest veneration, and are annually recognized in the celebrations of the order, all true Masons, feeling their high responsibility, will unitedly go forward in the great work, extending the lights and principles of Masonry, as a forerunner to prepare the way, by liberalizing the minds of men—by removing their prejudices, correcting their evil propensities, and by doing away all ill-will, malice, hatred, revenge and contentions among men, so as to prepare their minds for the reception of the blessings of divine truth.

Then will the institution of Masonry shine with peculiar lustre, and be viewed in its true light, and be no longer contemned and frowned upon by the world, as a mischievous combination of men plotting treachery and treason.

Never, perhaps, were greater efforts made, at any period, than are now making in some parts of this country, to bring the institution of Masonry into disrepute, and to destroy its usefulness. Therefore Masons ought to be doubly vigilant in the exercise of every Masonic virtue.

The falsehood and slander poured forth upon the institution of Masonry are to be regarded by the brethren with indifference, and their authors are rather to be pitied than despised, and the lie given them by the upright conduct and virtuous exertions of all true Masons.

It is much to be regretted, to say the least, that the perfidy of some, and the imprudent conduct of others, have lately, in a neighboring State, given occasion for much excitement, and caused many of the brethren to feel severely the rod of persecution.

A more daring attempt to impose upon the credulity of mankind perhaps was never before made, than the one lately set on foot by certain pretended Masons, who have attempted to palm upon the world a spurious production as a genuine work. And with respect to deceiving and gulling the more credulous and inconsiderate part of the community, they have but too well succeeded in their nefarious attempts.

But you, my brethren, and all true Masons, will not be deceived. You know in what estimation this spurious production and its authors ought to be held;—and the credulous and inconsiderate will be taught a wholesome lesson—that they have paid dear for their credulity, and will soon learn, that no one can gain a just knowledge of Masonry, except he enter in at the right door, which is always open and free for the admission of all those who are worthy and well qualified. At the same time they will be also taught that it is not possible for any to climb up into the sheep-fold of a Masonic Lodge by any other way.

I have had occasion since my arrival in this place to notice with pain and extreme regret the late extraordinary, and it would seem rash and inconsiderate step, taken by a brother, under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge, calculated to bring the institution of Masonry into disrepute, and to impede its salutary influences.

It must be matter of wonder and astonishment to every considerate, reflecting and unprejudiced mind, that this disaffected brother should be disposed to attach to the institution of Freemasonry those imperfections and evils, which, if they exist at all, are alone attributable to the imperfections, frailty and corruption of its members! If the best of all institutions among men were to be judged and condemned by the frailty and wickedness of its members, it could not stand, and all hopes of reforming and reclaiming this our world must forever cease. Yet the rash and very uncandid representation of this our disaffected brother, calls for our compassion, rather than for our resentment and contempt. Let prudence, caution and brotherly love direct our steps under all trials and circumstances, and we shall have nothing to fear for the honor of Masonry.

I considered it advisable at the commencement of the past summer, to address a circular to the several Lodges under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge, through the agency of the District Deputies, recommending it to them to contribute something from their funds, as they might deem expedient and proper, in aid of the great and benevolent objects of the American Colonization Society.

This measure was not without a precedent and example. Masonic Societies in other States have contributed to the promotion of the same benevolent objects. And this Grand Lodge has formerly contributed liberally in aid of similar objects. Therefore I confidently trust that you, my brethren, will not be inclined to consider the recommendation of this measure as a departure from Masonic principles, or a violation of official duty.

The ultimate success of the African Colony at Liberia, which was commenced and hitherto has been sustained by that Society, in many respects may be justly considered of the first importance.

The oppressed and degraded sons of Africa, torn from their native land, and enslaved by the cupidity of our ancestors, have a just claim upon our commiseration and benevolence.

And how can we so effectually discharge the great and accumulating debt we owe this injured race, as by sending them back and making them comfortable, enlightened and free in the land of their fathers? And how can we so effectually relieve our beloved country from that great national curse, slavery, a foul stain upon our national escutcheon, which unless timely removed, will at no very distant period drench our land in blood, and involve us in all the horrors of civil war, and prostrate our free institutions, as by promptly and efficiently aiding the laudable efforts of the American Colonization Society?

And how can we discharge the great debt we owe to injured Africa as well as by sending back her sons with a knowledge of the arts, thereby shedding the lights of science, of civilization, of Freemasonry and of the blessed gospel of peace and divine truth, through that dark and benighted region of the earth? Where is there an enlightened and liberal-minded Mason, who would not rejoice and esteem it his highest privilege, to lend his aid in spreading civilization, the lights of Freemasonry and the blessings of our holy religion, from whence would flow freedom and happiness through that extensive region of the globe; where mental darkness, extreme wretchedness, and gross idolatry, with all their accompanying evils, now reign with imperial sway

Should this Grand Lodge see fit to sanction a donation of this character, let its application be limited, should they so direct, to the procuring of implements, clothing, furniture and jewels, together with the book of constitutions and other suitable treatises on Freemasonry, and the holy writings, to send out for the sole benefit of a Grand Lodge of free and accepted Masons, which shall be hereafter established at Liberia, that thereby the rights and benefits of Freemasonry may be extended through that neglected quarter of the globe, where at present darkness reigns.

This, my brethren, is an age of wonders : great improvements are going forward, calculated to elevate man to that distinguished rank in the scale of created intelligence for which he was originally designed. Much is now doing, and much more remains to be performed, through the agency of human exertions.

Our obligations as men and Masons to be up and doing in this great work are imperative. Let it never, then, be justly said that Freemasons, in this great work of reforming and happifying the world, have been weighed in the balance and found wanting.

This is a subject, my brethren, on which I could long dwell with unfeigned delight, but time and your patience admonish me to forbear.

After performing the few remaining duties devolving upon me, I shall most cheerfully retire, bowing with all due respect to the worthy brother whom you shall unitedly select to succeed me in office, carrying with me to the latest period of my life a grateful remembrance of your kindness and respect, whilst my ardent desire and unceasing prayer shall be for your individual prosperity and happiness—for the respectability and usefulness of this Grand Lodge, and for the success and extension of genuine Freemasonry through the world.

The address of the M. W. Grand Master was referred to a committee of five, viz.: Brothers Tucker, Haswell, Shedd, Hammond and Parish.

Brother Hibbard introduced the following resolution, which was read and adopted :

IN GRAND LODGE, October 9, 5827.

Resolved, That this Grand Lodge recommend to all the subordinate Lodges under their jurisdiction to dispense with the use of ardent spirits on all public occasions.

The Grand Lodge was called from labor till 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

OCTOBER 10, 9 o'clock, A. M.

The Grand Lodge was called to labor, and the Grand Officers elect for the year ensuing were duly installed.

The committee to whom was referred so much of the District Deputy Grand Master's report for District No. 10 as relates to means for an uniform system of work and lectures, reported the following resolution which was read and adopted, viz.:

Resolved, That it shall be the duty of the several District Deputy Grand Masters hereafter to assemble, during the sessions of the Grand Lodge, or immediately thereafter, and compare their lectures and mode of work, and so far as is practicable establish an uniformity therein, conformably to the directions of the Grand Lodge, and receive a reasonable compensation from the funds of this Grand Lodge, not exceeding two dollars per day.

The charter of Warren Lodge, No. 23, was surrendered to the Grand Lodge, by Brother Norman Williams, in pursuance of a resolution of said Lodge passed October 4, 5827, and deposited in the archives of the Grand Lodge.

Bro. Williams introduced the following resolution, which was read and adopted :

Resolved, That the R. W. District Deputy Grand Master for District No. 1, be directed to receive and hold, subject to the future directions of this

Grand Lodge, the jewels and funds of Warren Lodge, No. 23, the charter of which has been surrendered to this Grand Lodge. Provided :

That such portion of said funds as may be necessary to discharge the debts due from said Lodge be appropriated for that purpose, to be expended under the direction of a committee already appointed by said Lodge to settle its concerns.

The committee on petitions for new Lodges, to whom was referred the subject of chartering an independent Lodge of colored Masons, in Philadelphia, made report thereon : That the Grand Lodge of Vermont do not possess a constitutional power to charter a Lodge in Pennsylvania, and if such power existed, its exercise in this case would be inexpedient, as this Grand Lodge would have no control over such Lodge, and could not enforce the rules and regulations prescribed for the government of subordinate Lodges under its jurisdiction. The committee therefore report that it is inexpedient to charter a Lodge of colored Masons in Philadelphia.

Which report was concurred in by the Grand Lodge.

The committee to whom was referred sundry communications from foreign Grand Lodges, made report thereon : That they have not been able to find in the proceedings of our sister Grand Lodges anything which requires the particular attention of this Grand Lodge. They find by the communications referred to them, that a commendable zeal appears to be displayed in the different sections of the United States, and adjacent provinces, to promote and diffuse the general principles of Masonry ; and that this Grand Lodge may respond to these high and praiseworthy exertions, we recommend a continuance of the practice of forwarding to the several Grand Lodges, the proceedings of this Grand Lodge.

The committee to whom was referred the address of the M. W. Grand Master made the following report thereon :

That they highly appreciate the truly Masonic feeling and correct Masonic views expressed by our respected brother, upon his retirement from the chair, and recommend that so much of his address as he may deem proper to be made public, be published in our next printed journals.

In relation to the subjects of business referred to in the address, and now to be acted upon by the Grand Lodge, your committee (upon the best reflection which time would allow them to give the subject) propose the following resolutions for the consideration of the Grand Lodge :

Resolved, That in the opinion of this Grand Lodge, the amelioration of the condition of free blacks, by removing them to the Colony of Liberia, on the coast of Africa, is an object dictated by principles of true philanthropy, and worthy of support by the Masonic fraternity.

Resolved, That the American Colonization Society, established to promote this philanthropic object, and having thus far pursued it with zeal, to the great benefit of many of the sons of Africa, deserves the the highest approbation of every friend of humanity.

Resolved, That this Grand Lodge, highly approving of the objects of the American Colonization Society, present the sum of one hundred dollars as a donation in aid of the funds of that society.

Resolved, That this Grand Lodge, viewing the extension of Masonic light and information as a blessing to the world, appoint a committee of one to obtain information as to the propriety and expediency of establishing a Grand Lodge at the Colony of Liberia, on the coast of Africa, which committee shall report at the next regular communication of this Grand Lodge.

Resolved, That the sum of $40 be presented to Brother John Purdy, in payment for Masonic services rendered by order of our Past Most Worshipful Grand Master.

Your committee do not find in the address any other subject upon which an expression of their opinion, or that of the Grand Lodge, appears to be required at the present time.

In relation to the special report of the District Deputy for District No. 5, referred to this committee, they observe that if the Grand Lodge should deem it advisable to make an appropriation to the American Colonization Society from its own funds (as the committee have herein recommended), they believe that it should be considered as a rescinding of the conditional vote passed by Washington Lodge. They also feel it their duty to remark, that such a vote of the Grand Lodge ought to operate in the same manner upon any vote which may have been passed upon this subject by any other subordinate Lodge in consequence of the recommendation contained in the circular of our Past Most Worshipful Grand Master. Your committee make these suggestions in view of the well-known fact that the acts of the subordinate Lodges upon this subject have been extremely limited, and that their private benefactions generally, and the constant home demands upon their charity, are such as to forbid any foreign appropriation of those funds which are and ought to be secured to the purposes of alleviating among their own immediate brethren and kindred the pangs of sickness, of distress and poverty.

Which report was read and concurred in, the resolutions adopted, and Brother D. Azro A. Buck appointed a committee in pursuance of the fourth resolution.

The following named brethren were nominated by the representatives of subordinate Lodges in the several Masonic districts to be District Deputy Grand Masters for the year ensuing, and were appointed as such by the Grand Lodge, viz.:

Bro. Hyde introduced the following resolution, which was read and adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Grand Lodge be presented to the choir of singers of this village, for their very acceptable assistance in the public exercises of the day.

On motion of Bro. Tucker,

Resolved, That the Grand Treasurer be directed to purchase a set of common gavels similar to those now in use for the Grand Lodge.

Bro. Tucker introduced the following resolution, which was read and adopted:

Resolved, That the fourth article of the general regulations be so altered as to leave the subject of conferring more than one degree of Masonry at the same communication to the discretion of the subordinate Lodges.

Which resolution being read, the yeas and nays were taken on the question, "shall it be adopted." Yeas 81, nays 38. So the resolution was adopted.

The committee of petitions for new Lodges made report on the petition of sundry brethren of Independence Lodge, No. 40, "that the prayer thereof ought to be granted", which report was concurred in, and the prayer of said petition granted accordingly.

Bro. Buck introduced the following resolution, which was read and adopted:

Resolved, That there be and hereby is appropriated out of the funds of this Grand Lodge such sum as may be necessary to constitute our R. W. and Rev. Grand Chaplain, Simeon Parmalee, a member for life of the American Colonization Society; and that the Grand Treasurer be directed to apply such sum for that purpose.

The Grand Secretary nominated, and the Grand Lodge appointed Bro. Oramel H. Smith Assistant Grand Secretary for the year ensuing.

The following donations were received from the subordinate Lodges named before, for the benefit of the American Colonization Society, to be delivered to the Treasurer of the Vermont Colonization Society, viz.:

Seven o'clock P. M.—The Grand Lodge was called to labor.

The committee appointed to draft an appeal, reported the following, to wit, viz.:

The attitude, fellow-citizens, which a concurrence of circumstances of the most astonishing character, requires us to assume, however unpleasant to ourselves individually, can render us obnoxious to no sort of censure. The principles upon which the structure of this government rests, inculcate as a paramount duty the presentation of dispassionate and candid, but fearless and decisive protests against the obtaining of any doctrines designed to subtract from or restrict the exercise of any, the least among the rights secured to every citizen of these United and Republican States. It would, then, be but discharge of a duty, if we believe ourselves, as the free residents of this soil, aggrieved, our charters traduced, and our most innocent intentions calumniated, to stand forth and claim from you the liberty of the free and perfect exercise of all those benefits for the enjoyment of which we stand to each other in the relation of mutual guarantees. They are identified with your own, indivisible in themselves, and the hand which would blot from the record of this country's freemen the name of the least among them, be he free from the retributions which the sanctity of the laws requires, would, if possessed of the power, deprive each of you of those privileges which are secured by the charter of our liberties. But beside the violation of personal immunities which alone would constitute a sufficient warrant for us thus publicly to appear, we find an imperious requisition in the peril to which our republican institutions are exposed. Every individual among you who will not openly and unqualifiedly assent to the proscriptive policy and anti-republican doctrines which the leaders of anti-masonry have inscribed broadly and deeply upon their acts, is placed at once without the pale of benefits, and as effectually disfranchised as are the vassals of a despotism. You cannot but know that contrary to every legal, moral or religious principle, they have endeavored to make a large and respectable association of individuals, numbering in their ranks some of the most distinguished patriots of the revolution, and statesmen of subsequent time, responsible for an act respecting which the bounds of probability are transcended, if it be said that most of them, previous to its commission, could so much as have even heard. This forestalling of the public mind, which is little less than a virtual annihilation of the judicial power, whatever be the magnitude of the innovation, is but the inceptive step in the progress of this second Gallic resolution. The contagion must necessarily extend to every department of the government. The church is to be pruned of the excrescences which, we are told, have so long disfigured it, and as the capstone in this novel order of improvement, the military power is to be composed exclusively of conscripts from political anti-masonry.

Fellow-citizens, in sincerity of heart we are constrained to ask, what solemn event can, by any possibility, have occurred, demanding or even excusing this entire revolution in the polity of our government? So far as we are acquainted with the ostensible reason, it consists in a series of charges against Freemasons, and those who, in the remotest manner, attempt a vindication of their cause.

From the first establishment of civilized communities in this country, till 1836, Masonry existed in every section of it where Christianity obtained, without exciting in the public either fear or jealousy; while the European despotisms were continually harassing and oppressing its members, and in instances which have now become the subject of history, a complete interdiction was enforced, and not infrequently the omnipotent aid of the Inquisition resorted to, that the destruction of the institution might be effected, or its mysteries developed to the observation of the world. These efforts we need not tell you, were utterly of no avail!

At the latter period, the inordinate but laudable feeling which pervaded the public mind, because of a violation of the right of personal security, was manifested by members of the fraternity no less than by others; and the former, as Masons and as citizens, solicitous for the unqualified enjoyment of their privileges, for immunity from harm and as foes to every feature of disorganization, most heartily deprecated and denounced the lawless act.*

There were found in the vicinity where this abduction took place, individuals prepared to take advantage of the excited state of public feeling, and instead of permitting it to pursue a course which, to all appearances, would have resulted in the ample satisfaction of justice, by the signal conviction and exemplary punishment of the guilty, and the consequent exoneration of the innocent from every imputation, were disposed to utterly divert its course, and change a holy demonstration of public feeling into an engine for the erection of a distinct and anomalous party in politics; well knowing that in every faction, the pioneers, from inordinate zeal, entitle themselves indisputably to the spoils of victory. Hence every means was used to secure the end; and this single secret of political Anti-Masonry, contains an invincible reason why we are compelled to obtrude ourselves upon the attention of our fellow-citizens.

The consequence of this assimilation of leaders for political warfare, was the establishment of various preases, through which, as channels, every necessary slander which the rankest malignity might require, could with impunity be poured upon the public ear. This having been done, were we to remain silent, we should be guilty of inflicting no less an injury upon you than upon ourselves. For were we quietly to submit to the dispensation and dissemination of error, and suffer a political party to be built upon it, destructive to the liberties of the people, when we possessed the power of exposing the falsity of the representations, we should, to say the least, display an unwarrantable and reprehensible disregard for the safety of the free institutions under which we live.

As Masons, we have been charged with being accessory to the abduction of William Morgan, with shielding Masons from just punishment for crimes they may have committed, with exercising an influence, through the Masonic character, over the legislative, executive and judiciary branches of our government; with tampering with juries; with exerting an influence for the political preferment of members of the order, because of their membership, in preference to others; with various blasphemous practices; with causing the death of a distinguished Mason, lest he should dissolve his connection with the order; with holding or sanctioning principles at variance with religion and virtue; and with the assumption of a power to judge an individual brother by a law known only to ourselves, and to inflict corporeal punishment, even to that of death.

To each and every one of the above charges, as men whose characters are known in this community, and who rely upon a future accountability, we make reply: In the most solemn manner we positively affirm that of each and all of them, we are entirely guiltless, and that Masonry, so far as we are acquainted with it, in no way or manner yields a sanction to the principles or practices which all or each of them include.

As Masons we hold ourselves guiltless in any manner of the shedding of human blood; guiltless in any manner of conspiring against the liberties or privileges of the people, or endeavoring to monopolize an unequal portion of those privileges to ourselves, or to abridge the rights of others; guiltless in any manner of impeding, retarding or diverting the course of justice; guiltless in any manner of an intrusion into the three great departments of our government; guiltless in any manner of attempting to identify the subject with politics, or of making the latter a matter of discussion or remark; guiltless in any manner of performing any rite, or doing any act, immoral or irreligious; and guiltless in any manner of entertaining the remotest suspicion that the life of a fellow-being was subject to our control.

For the truth of these declarations, solemnly made, we have given you the strongest pledge which honorable and virtuous men have it in their power to yield.

The committee to whom was referred sundry communications from foreign Grand Lodges, report: That during the past year the Grand Secretary has received the journals of the Grand Lodges of Maine, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New York, Maryland, North Carolina, Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Kentucky and Ohio, and that upon a thorough perusal they are found to be confined principally to the ordinary local business of their respective States, and show a very gratifying interest in all the affairs and attention to the interests of the order. We find occasionally that the journals contain addresses to the Craft of a very interesting character. Some of them have been delivered by the Grand Masters, and others by the Grand Chaplains, or orators of their respective Lodges. An address by the M. W. Samuel Feasenden, Past Grand Master of the State of Maine, appears to your committee to be of a character highly calculated to enlighten the ignorant, confirm the doubting and convince the candid of the correctness and purity of our Masonic principles. Another address by the Grand Treasurer of the Grand Lodge of Louisiana, Louis H. Ferand, appears also of a character highly interesting to the order; and as a means of placing before our brethren, and the public generally, the principles of the fraternity in other States, the publication of these addresses in the Masonic papers of this State is respectfully recommended.

Which report was read and accepted and voted, that the addresses therein mentioned be published.

Several verbal returns were accepted by the Grand Lodge.

IN GRAND LODGE, October 13, 1890.

Resolved, That at every communication of this Grand Lodge an individual brother be appointed to deliver an address at the succeeding regular communication of the same, and that the delivery of this address be made part of the public exercises.

Bro. George H. Prentiss was appointed to deliver a public address before the Grand Lodge at its next annual communication.

Two o'clock, P. M.—The M. W. Grand Master made the appointment of the following committees, viz.:

On the committee on communications from foreign Grand Lodges, Bros. Strong, Willoughby and Keyes.

On the committee on finance, Bros. Huntington, Blackmer and H. Reed.

The M. W. Grand Master communicated the following address:

MY BRETHREN :

The Almighty and Righteous Governor of the Universe has again permitted us to assemble within these walls, dedicated to Him, to Virtue, and to Universal Benevolence, to discharge the high and responsible trust committed to us as Masons; we have implored His blessing upon our labors, and should in full and cheerful confidence rely upon His arm for support.

It has been customary at the commencement of a session of this Grand Lodge for the presiding officer to make a formal communication, and my apology for deviating from the usual course is the short time allowed us for transacting the ordinary as well as extraordinary concerns that are to engage our attention, some of which I shall briefly note.

The Grand Chapter of this State have notified an adjourned meeting at this place to-morrow. Many of our brethren are members of that body—our business talents should therefore be called into requisition that we may complete our labors in season for their convenience.

On the 10th day of July last, I received a communication signed by several brethren of Woodstock, requesting me as Grand Master to call a special session of the Grand Lodge, to consider the question of dissolving the Institution of Masonry in this State. The communication with my reply will be laid before you.

As the representative of a subordinate chapter, I attended a communication of the Grand Chapter of this State in August last, when I found a similar proposition had been laid before that body for dissolving its connections with Masons, and surrendering its charter. There appeared, however, among those present at that communication a decided wish and determination to sustain the Institution in the State; its friends did not press decision, but consented to postpone the question until after the present session of this Grand Lodge.

On a subject so deeply interesting as the one pending before the Grand Chapter, and embraced in the communication from our Woodstock brethren, I deemed it my duty to use every exertion to ensure a general attendance of the members of the Grand Lodge, and accordingly directed the Grand Secretary to issue the required notice to the secular Lodges.

The promptness with which you have met the summons is an earnest of your steadfast attachment to the order.

After my return from the Grand Chapter in August, that we might be availed of the wisdom and advice of distinguished Masons without the State, I opened a correspondence with the Grand Officers of such States as might enable me to receive their communications previous to the present session. This correspondence, embracing answers from the Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, and Grand Secretary of New York, Grand Master and Grand Secretary of Delaware, Grand Master of Maryland, and Grand Master of Massachusetts, will be laid before you, and I shall cherish the hope that this Grand Lodge will respond to the Masonic sentiments contained in their communications.

The session of the Grand Lodge of Vermont at the present period becomes deeply interesting in consequence of the open as well as concealed attacks made upon our Institution, and of the disturbed state into which not only our own but other societies, churches, families, with many of the kind connections of the Christian and social relations of life are thrown by men who are seeking self-aggrandizement and elevation to political power.

Masonic Lodges have existed in this State for nearly half a century. They are older than our State Government. We have existed as a Grand Lodge since the year seventeen hundred and ninety-four, a period of seven years; and what have Masons in Vermont done, that this widespread ruin should visit us? We have made repeated and solemn appeals to our fellow-citizens, our neighbors, and those endeared to us by the solemn ties of kindred and friendship.* In return we have been met with reproaches and persecution, our honest intentions misrepresented, our rights as Masons, our rights as freemen, abridged, and our characters traduced. What shall now be done? Will you permit me to answer the question? Breast the storm! and when a calm succeeds and the moral ruins shall be made bare, an injured and insulted public will reinstate us in our rights, and visit the despoilers with infamy and disgrace.

* A solemn and dignified appeal was made by the Grand Lodge, and sent to the people in October, 1829.

We are a Frontier Post in Masonry, and as such are receiving at the present time the combined attack of foreign and domestic foes in our own and neighboring States.

The eyes of the Christian and the Philanthropist are upon us, viewing the conflict, watching to see whether we capitulate and surrender our Masonic Citadel; and this day, my brethren, will decide whether in Vermont it stands or falls. Although a frontier post in Masonry, our mountains and "the everlasting hills" by which this hall is surrounded, planted by God as monuments of His unchangeableness, and from which we may glean lessons of wisdom, should be emblematic of our firmness and moral courage, in resisting encroachments, thus showing to our brethren in other States, and throughout the world, our continued fidelity in sustaining and defending our altar and our principles.

NATHAN B. HASWELL,

Grand Master.

The roll of the members was called and the number of votes determined, and the following brethren appointed tellers, viz.: Bros. Willoughby, Loomis and H. H. Reed.

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed by this Grand Lodge, whose duty it shall be to report a resolution, recommending an unqualified surrender to this Grand Lodge of the charters of the several secular Lodges under its jurisdiction, and that this Grand Lodge henceforth abandon all convocations as a Masonic body.

Which resolution was read and ordered to lie upon the table.

IN GRAND LODGE, October 12, 5831.

Your committee to whom was referred the communications from foreign Grand Lodges, beg leave to report: That they have examined the communications so far as they had time, and find their general character to be merely the ordinary proceedings of the Grand Lodge in correspondence with this Grand Lodge; and require no particular notice, except the communication from the Grand Lodge of the State of Rhode Island, which is an address from the Grand Lodge to the people of that State, and a circular from the Grand Master of that Grand Lodge recommending that the Grand Lodge of this State make a similar address to the people of this State. Your committee, believing said address to have had a free circulation in this State, think nothing more is necessary than to place the same in the archives of this Grand Lodge. And they further report, that they do not think it expedient at this time to make a similar address, by this Grand Lodge, to the people of this State.

WHEREAS, The public attention has been seriously called to the subject and proposition of reforming or abandoning the Masonic institution in this State; and Whereas, This Lodge, willing to listen to all the reasons and arguments that could be offered for and against the proposition, having carefully and patiently given their best attention to the same, and being induced to believe with the advocates of the measure proposed, and the high and respectable authorities quoted by them, that however excellent, useful and praiseworthy the grand principles of Free Masonry have been esteemed, and in fact are, and that however useful and honorable the institution may have formerly been, in cultivating and extending the generous feelings of friendship, charity, and liberal sentiments among men and nations—still that the day of its utility is gone by; that recent events have brought it into suspicion and public odium that its attribute of secrecy; and its obligations and imprecated penalties are considered by the public as obnoxious to our frank, liberal and republican notions, and to the taste and feelings of the age, and have been barbarously misconstrued and perverted in the outrage upon Morgan, and that it is in accordance with the feelings and wishes of the great body of the people, to have the institution given up and closed forever: and believing with Chancellor Walworth, of New York, that the evils of keeping up the institution hereafter more than counterbalance any good which in this country can possibly be effected by it, and which determined him, for the purpose of quieting the alarm of the community and preserving the peace of neighborhoods, as well as to prevent divisions in the church of our Divine Master, to recommend that Masons should submit to the reasonable demands of the public, to cease their meetings, and that the Lodges surrender their charters.

We, therefore, convened as aforesaid, do of our own accord, unawed by the sneers or frowns of the world, and uninfluenced by any considerations but those of duty to ourselves and friends, and a due regard to the feelings of the public and the welfare and harmony of our beloved country, adopt the following resolutions and decrees, with a fixed and honest purpose of heart to abide by them hereafter, viz.:

Therefore, it is hereby Resolved and decreed, That each and every charter or dispensation heretofore issued and granted by this Grand Lodge, or under the authority thereof, constituting Lodges within this State, and authorizing members of the Masonic Fraternity to assemble as Masons, and to enter Apprentices, pass Fellow Crafts, and raise to the degree of Master Mason, be and the same are hereby revoked and annulled, and said Lodges are hereby declared to be dissolved, and all rights and privileges appertaining to the same so far as conferred by us under the authority of this Grand Lodge held for naught.

And it is hereby further resolved and decreed, that each and every subordinate Lodge constituted as aforesaid shall have full power to dispose of any and all funds, furniture, jewels or other property of any kind whatever belonging thereto, in such manner and for such purpose as such Lodge may deem proper and expedient.

And it is hereby further resolved and decreed, that this Grand Lodge, from and after the close of this communication, shall be held to be dissolved and extinct, and the society of Free and Accepted Masons within this State under the supervision and jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge shall cease to exist as an organized and constituted body, and each and every member thereby shall be and hereby is fully absolved and discharged from all allegiance or duty to this Grand Lodge or any subordinate Lodge, constituted as aforesaid, in its constituted capacity, and shall be free to act in relation thereto according to the dictates of his own conscience and sense of moral right.

ADDRESS OF THE OFFICERS OF THE GRAND LODGE TO THE PEOPLE OF VERMONT.

The undersigned, officers of the Grand Lodge of the State of Vermont, impelled by a sense of justice towards their brethren, and a desire to have the subject which has been recently agitated more perfectly understood by the public than they believe it to be, have judged it within the proper sphere of their duties to submit the following remarks to their fellow-citizens:

Several weeks previous to the ordinary annual session of the Grand Lodge the present year, a writer in a newspaper published at Brattleboro renewed the long-agitated question of reforming the Masonic Institution in this State; and asserting himself to be a "Royal Arch Mason," declared his intention of presenting his plan of reform to the Grand Lodge at its said session, to be holden at Montpelier, on the second Tuesday of October. Previous to this communication of the Brattleboro writer, the storm which had agitated the State for several years appeared to be gradually settling into a calm. Most of the local Lodges in the State had ceased their Masonic labor, and but few of them convened at all. The subject of a dissolution had been presented both to the Grand Lodge and Grand Chapter of the State, and a fair trial of the question in both bodies had resulted in a vote of the most conclusive character against it, as early as the Autumn of 1831.* Whether this decision was a mistaken one or not, it indicated most clearly the Masonic feeling of the State upon the question, and no new fact had occurred to warrant the belief that this opinion had undergone any essential change. The new project, therefore, of the Brattleboro writer, coming from one well-known to have seldom been heard of in a secular Lodge, and who had never attended the Grand Lodge, and presented, also, to the public, as it was, upon the eve of an important State election, in which political Anti-Masonry was the test question of party, carried upon its very face just cause for suspicion. This suspicion, also, was not weakened when the Brattleboro writer brought forward, in the Grand Lodge, his promised project of reform, embodied in a written essay, carrying, in the opinion of many of our members, internal evidence of having proceeded from the most vindictive of our enemies—from a writer who has avowed his willingness to visit us with "good wholesome penalties of fine and imprisonment," for opinion's sake, who honored Vermont with a visit (in the immediate vicinity of Brattleboro), a short time before our recent State election, and who is now a candidate for the executive chair of the State of Massachusetts. Nor did it tend to weaken this suspicion, that the project presented was not one of reform, merely, but of an entire dissolution of all our lodges. Notwithstanding, however, every objection, the Grand Lodge gave the subject a calm, deliberate and dispassionate hearing; an entire day was occupied in discussion, and the decision against it, by a vote of nearly two to one, is already before the public.

The undersigned are of opinion that the history of the Masonic Institution in this State has not been thoroughly understood, even by many of our own members, and that the much-talked-of subject of Masonic charters has been but very imperfectly comprehended. Many, even among intelligent men, have been heard to speak of "the charter of the Grand Lodge" as the subject of consideration at the recent session. The Grand Lodge has not and never had a charter. It is a self-created body, organized upon the same general principles of association as other societies, and was formed thirty-nine years ago, by the representation of all the Lodges then existing in the State. It is governed by a written constitution, under which by-laws and regulations have been made for its convenience. It owes no allegiance to, and holds no charter from, any other power, but is governed solely by laws of its own creation.

Previous to the month of October, 1794, there were five organized Lodges in Vermont, two of which received their charters from the Grand Lodge of Connecticut, two from the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts, and one from the Grand Lodge of the province of Lower Canada. These charters bear date respectively in the years 1781, 1785, 1791, 1793 and 1794. In four of these charters, presiding officers are named by the Grand Lodges which granted them, and these individually were Nathaniel Brush, Noah Smith and John Chipman, Esqrs. and his Excellency Thomas Chittenden. The representation of these Lodges, in the several bodies under which they held their charters, was both inconvenient and expensive. This gave rise to a convention, which met at Rutland, on the 14th day of October, 1794, and the members of which were Stephen Jacob, Christopher Roberts, William Cooley, Enoch Woodbridge, Roswell Hopkins, Noah Smith, Nathaniel Brush, David Fay, John Chipman, Thomas Tolman and Joel Linsley. By this convention, the Grand Lodge of Vermont was formed and an independent constitution framed for its government. The five old charters were deposited with the new Grand Lodge and five new ones issued under its jurisdiction.

This Grand Lodge has existed from that time and has granted in all seventy-three charters, five of which have been heretofore surrendered and the other sixty eight are still in force. By these charters the power conferred is simply to authorize a body of Masons to convene in some town named therein as a regular lodge; to organize themselves by the choice of proper officers; to receive and admit such new members as they may approve, and to collect funds for the relief of the poor and decayed members, their widows and children; and they are required to keep regular records of their proceedings, to pay reasonable dues to the Grand Lodge, and to make correct returns of their business at the sessions of the Grand Lodge.

Neither by the constitution of 1794, nor by the by-laws and general regulations which have been framed under it, has the Grand Lodge reserved the power of recalling charters at its will, and by Masonic usage no charter is ever taken away, but for mal-conduct of a Lodge. Indeed, after granting a charter in good faith to a local lodge of Masons, the palpable injustice of recalling it at pleasure, without or against the consent of the grantees and without any cause of forfeiture on their part, must appear manifest to the least reflecting mind. The right of the local lodges to surrender their charters to the Grand Lodge has been always recognized, and several lodges had acted upon this subject and sent in their charters before the institution became an object of jealousy to the public. To meet this subject at the late session a resolution was early introduced inviting the surrender of the charters of such lodges as wished to give them up; but even those who sustained and voted for the project did not call for the consideration of it, and it remained unacted upon on the table. After the final decision upon the project of the Brattleboro writer the same subject was renewed and a general resolution unanimously passed, to receive and revoke all charters which might be presented for that purpose, and also empowering the secretary to receive them when the Grand Lodge should not be in session. No charter was brought forward for surrender—not even that of the lodge represented by the mover of the project.

The majority of the Grand Lodge who voted against a surrender, undoubtedly voted upon the principle that they had no right to assume any control over the subject. They have left the responsibility of acting in the only hands where it could be justly placed, the individual Lodges themselves. It ought also to be here remarked, that to remove all objections which might arise as to the property of the Lodges, and which by their demise, would belong to the Grand Lodge, all claim thereto has been relinquished, and the Grand Lodge has recommended the appropriation of the avails of such property to the common school fund of the State.

The undersigned have no hesitancy in expressing their own opinion, that the agitation of the subject of giving up the Lodge charters, upon this occasion, did not arise out of an honest intention to pacify public opinion, by attempting the disorganization or dissolution of the Masonic institution in Vermont! but they have many reasons for believing that the real cause should be attributed to far less honorable motives. The excitement in this State (whatever political anti-Masonic office-seekers may say to the contrary) has always been aimed rather at Masons than Masonry. It has always been upon the part of the movers of it, a war for office; an object only to be affected by turning their war-cry against individuals. Their general attacks upon the institution have been only incidental and subservient to this, to them, more important object. This excitement against men was evidently slackening and new fuel became necessary to keep alive the flame, for the benefit of the agitators. The author of the pamphlets called Masonic Penalties (so highly flattered by Mr. Adams in his letter to Mr. Livingston, and formerly a travelling agent of his administration), held forth in a speech upon this subject, as early as the month of June—the anti-Masonic press soon joined the cry and pretended to change the ground from a war against Masons and Masonry, to one against Masonic organization. This was altogether a new view of the subject and answered the purpose of a “good enough Morgan, until after the election.” But when the contest was favorably decided for the agitators and it became really doubtful whether the charters might not be given up, there were many of these men heard to declare that, “if the charters were surrendered it would not be in good faith, but would be mere Masonic policy, calculated in the usual manner of Masonic deception, to bind its chain still firmer upon the community.” This idea must have as readily occurred in June as in October, and the use of it by the movers of the project is conclusive proof of their insincerity from the beginning. An election, also, in another State, probably entered into their motives, and that which has answered so valuable a political purpose in Vermont, has doubtless been made to answer its purpose also in Massachusetts.

But supposing, for the sake of argument, that the movers of the project were honest in their motives, the undersigned do not recognize their right to interfere in that subject at all. They have heretofore assumed to deprive us of many of our rights as citizens. We have been declared unworthy of civil or political promotion. The Bench, the Magistracy, the Jury Box, the Halls of Legislation, have been declared situations in which our presence was inadmissible; and as far as our enemies have had the power and dared to exercise it, these doctrines have been vigorously enforced. We know not where these assumptions of power over us and our affairs are to stop. It is but a few weeks since it was resolved solemnly in a public meeting that we ought to be disfranchised. Without the power to protect ourselves upon many of these subjects we can only claim our rights and protest against being deprived of them. Unconscious of ever having entertained principles not held in common with all our fellow citizens; unconscious that the rights of nature, the principles of the social compact or the defined privileges of the constitution and laws of the land, are to be applied to us by a different construction from that in which they are applied to others, we cannot acknowledge the continual interference of our enemies in our affairs as being founded in any correct principle of ethics or of law. Willing at all times to keep ourselves strictly within the acknowledged principles of the Government under which we live, we cannot be brought to feel the justice of being considered as proper objects for attack and punishment, because we belong to a different society and entertain different opinions from our oppressors. A general crusade against any other society would be considered odious in this land of toleration; although a recent remark—put down Masonry first and Methodism shall follow next—is probably indicative of more feeling, and has in it more truth as to the intentions of some men, than, at the present time, they would be willing to admit. Familiarity with persecution greatly lessens the deformity of its character and what the Masons have been made to suffer and are yet suffering, may, at no distant period, be visited upon the Methodists. The spirit which has already justified the one, would find no difficulty in justifying the other.

The undersigned, having been long connected both with the local Lodges of this State, and with the Grand Lodge, before taking leave of their fellow-citizens, would repeat: That, to the extent of their knowledge, the Masonic institution in this State has never been forced from its legitimate objects of general benevolence and diffusive charity. No interference with religion or politicks has ever swerved it from its appropriate employments. The undersigned are themselves of different sentiments in religion and of different parties in politicks. Two of them had the misfortune to be numbered among the supporters of our now ruthless enemy, during both his contests for the Presidential Chair, although no strangers to his hostility to our institution. To honest men of all sentiments, and of whatever party, we beg leave to say, that the present excitement has more of interest than is generally accorded to it. It is the first general excitement against a particular society which has occurred in this republic, and should it prove eventually successful, will furnish a precedent of the most dangerous character to the institutions of our beloved country.

On motion of Brother Joel Winch, a committee of three was appointed to examine the communications received from secular Lodges and present the views of the Grand Lodge at this time. N. B. Haswell, Joel Winch and Solomon Mason were appointed, who made the following report :

WHEREAS, The Grand Lodge of the State of Vermont has witnessed with regrets the assembling in different counties of the State of Masons called together by a notice or authority new and unknown to the usages of the craft, and in opposition to the constitution of the order ; therefore Resolved, That the Grand Lodge deem the assemblage of Masons in the manner above alluded to to be unmasonic and unconstitutional.

Resolved, That the resolution adopted by the Grand Lodge at its last session (whereby permission was given to the secular Lodges to surrender their charters and records, giving to said Lodges authority to retain and dispose of their property and funds as they see fit) was a measure calculated to relieve who wished to retire from Masonry.

Resolved, That the Grand Lodge do hereby receive, and they instruct their Secretary to receive hereafter, such charters and records as may be surrendered by virtue of the resolution aforesaid, and they order the same whenever surrendered to be deposited among its archives.

Resolved, That this Grand Lodge feel it a duty they owe themselves as well as the whole Masonic fraternity to declare, that while its individual members are left to the free and unmolested enjoyment of their sentiments upon the various subjects connected with religion and politics, and the right to judge of men and their actions, they hereby most solemnly declare that Masonic bodies have not the right to connect the institution with the sectarian or party views of either ; that any attempt thereat is a gross innovation upon those principles which among good and correct Masons are universally acknowledged, and should be universally practised upon.

Resolved, That the Grand Lodge do at this time, as they have hitherto done, declare to the world that the object of their association, and motives for continuing therein, are founded upon the principles of brotherly love, relief and truth. They disclaim the right of Masons to inflict corporeal punishment and acknowledge no other right to enforce obedience from its members but reprimand, suspension and expulsion.

Resolved, That the Grand Lodge recommend to those brethren who incline still to adhere to the institution of Masonry, to continue to cultivate a spirit of good will towards those who may differ from them respecting the origin and continuance of Free Masonry ; and while we are ready to forgive those whose fidelity has been shaken by one of those popular commotions incident to our free institutions, we are also ready to judge with candor the motives by which they have been governed.

In presenting the foregoing resolutions, your committee will close their report in the language of one of the late officers of this Grand Lodge, whose labors on earth are finished : We ask you to gaze with us upon the ominous gathering, which to no eye can be viewless; we ask you to contemplate its swelling aspect, its various phases and its multiform ramifications; listen to its busy notes of preparation and anticipate its maturity of strength, and then imagine its consummation to have taken place; then cast your eye around and see how many have quaked and quailed, how many have fled, how many have surrendered at discretion, and how many have renounced their faith and armed to batter us down; then complete the picture, and when you find the smoke and din of the conflict is passed, and the light streaming in upon us once more, not a heart flinching, not a hand palsied, but each and every one still invincible in defence of the mighty truth.

If Free Masonry falls, her monument will not crumble, nor her epitaph fade. It is erected upon the everlasting hills, it is firmly planted in the deepest vallies. The widow's prayer of joy, the orphan's tear of gratitude as they ascend, like the dew before the solar influence, bear with them its eulogy and its praise. So long as there remains a fragment of the temples of antiquity; so long as one stone of the edifices it has consecrated shall rest upon another; so long as brotherly love, relief and truth obtain among men, so long will its mausoleum endure. The waves of popular prejudice may beat against it, the shout of popular clamor may be thrown back in echoes from its base, the winds and weathers of time may press upon it, but still it will endure, glory will encircle it, honor will be yielded to it, and veneration will be felt for the hallowed recollections it quickens into action; and hereafter when he casts his eyes over the galaxy of social institutions among men, the philanthropist will involuntarily associate with his subject that other and celestial galaxy, and realize as now from the fiat that has effected the one, so then from the economy that controlled the other, that he will soon have to mourn for a lost Pleiades* which can never more be visible in the moral constellation.

Brother N. B. Haswell introduced the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted :

Resolved, That this Grand Lodge do acknowledge and will at all times cheerfully yield their support to all constitutional laws declaring that duty to their God and obedience to such laws are paramount to all other obligations.

Resolved, That claiming the constitutional right of peaceably meeting, as Masons have done in this State for more than forty years past, we again declare that we are when convened as well as when dispersed left to the free and unmolested enjoyments of our various opinions upon religion and politics, and further declare that Masons or Masonic bodies have not the right to connect the institution with the conflicting sectarian or party views of either.

Resolved, That we again renew our disclaimer of the right of inflicting corporal punishment upon our members for infractions of duty, acknowledging no other right to enforce obedience to our rules and regulations but that of reprimand, suspension or expulsion.

Resolved, That as all manner of evil is spoken against us we will renew our endeavors to prove by our lives and conversation the purity of our principles and the rectitude of our intentions; when reviled to revile not again; that by thus doing we may overcome evil with good.

Resolved, That again appealing to the Supreme Architect of the universe with a humble trust upon His almighty arm for support, we reiterate and declare to the world, that the object of our association, and motives for continuing therein, are founded upon the principles of brotherly love, relief and truth, the maintenance and support of which shall cease only with our existence.

Resolved, That the foregoing resolutions are recommended by a sound policy, having for its only object the maintenance of rights guaranteed by the constitution of our common country.

Brothers Englesby and Haswell are continued a committee to adjust the Montpelier Hall business.

The following resolutions passed unanimously :

Resolved, That the District Deputies receive the constitutions, records and papers of such Lodges as have ceased to work, and send them to the Grand Secretary.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Grand Lodge be tendered to the Rev.

Brother Winch, for his continued perseverance in the cause of Masonry, and that the sum of ten dollars be paid him.

The Grand Chaplain in a feeling and pathetic manner addressed the Throne of Grace, when the Grand Lodge was duly closed.

Statement of Nathan B. Haswell, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Vermont, on submitting to the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts a request for the approval and sanction of the proceedings of the Grand Officers of said State :

TO THE RIGHT WORSHIPFUL GRAND LODGE OF MASSACHUSETTS :

BRETHREN :—In behalf of the Grand Lodge of Vermont, I submit the following statement, requesting your action, and, if proper, approval of our proceedings during the unholy anti-Masonic excitement in this State. Two of the first Masonic Charters in Vermont were granted by the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts, and we deem it proper at the present time to resort to her counsel and advice in the important matter of again entering upon the active work of Masonry in Vermont.

STATEMENT.

Previous to the organization of the Grand Lodge in Vermont in 1794, there were five organized Lodges in the State, two of them working under Charters granted by Massachusetts, two by Connecticut, and one by the Grand Lodge of Canada. On the formation of the Grand Lodge of Vermont, these charters were surrendered and new ones granted.

From the first organization of Lodges in this State up to the year 1829 Masonry flourished. The excitement of anti-Masons in a neighboring State spread to ours and such was its virulence that the Grand Lodge during their session this year sent forth an appeal to the public (this appeal was signed by several hundred Masons). A bold charge was made upon us in 1831 and 1833, to compel us to surrender our charters. The manner in which it was met will be found in the printed proceedings of those years.

A resolution was passed in 1833 by the Grand Lodge, giving permission to secular Lodges to surrender their charters. In 1834, the Lodge at Montpelier, while the Grand Lodge was in session, surrendered their charter. A resolution was passed, removing the Grand Lodge from that place to Burlington, and sundry resolutions also passed (see printed sheet, Oct. 7, A. L. 5834). This is the last printed document issued from the Grand Lodge.

The last public election of officers was in 1836, when the following Brethren were elected, viz.:

M. W. NATHAN B. HASWELL,	Grand Master.
R. W. PHILIP C. TUCKER, of Burlington,	Grand Deputy Master.
R. W. LAVIUS FILLEMORE, of Middlebury,	Grand Senior Warden.
R. W. JOHN BRAINARD, of Bridport,	Grand Junior Warden.

R. W. EBENEZER T. ENGBESBY, of Burlington,	Grand Treasurer.
R. W. JOHN B. HOLLENBECK, of Burlington,	Grand Secretary.
W. WILLIAM HIDDEN, of Craftsbury,	Grand Senior Deacon.
W. RICHARD FITZGERALD, of Burlington,	Grand Junior Deacon.
W. HENRY WHITNEY, of Burlington, }	Grand Stewards.
W. DAN LYON, of Burlington, }
W. and Rev. JOEL WINCH, of Northfield,	Grand Chaplain.
W. JOHN MUNSON, of Burlington,	Grand Pursuivant.
W. MALACHI CORNING, of Burlington,	Grand Tyler.

At this session it was decided that the peculiar situation of the secular Lodges was such, that it required the organization of the Grand Lodge to be kept up, to relieve the secular Lodges, and quiet the public mind. It was decided that under existing circumstances the Grand Lodge should hold biennial meetings, and that the present Grand Master, Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary (who lived in Burlington and near the Masonic Hall), should meet and adjourn the same. Resolutions were introduced at this meeting with a view to publication, but they were never published. The three officers, Grand Master, Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary, met biennially in 1838, 1840, 1842 and 1844 and adjourned the Grand Lodge. The next meeting is on the 2nd Wednesday of January next (14th). A number of the Brethren from different sections of our State will meet the Grand Officers on that day, and at that time it may be thought advisable to take measures to resuscitate some of the secular Lodges that have proved themselves worthy.

The grand officers desire to proceed with Masonic caution, and although we have not literally complied with the constitution and by-laws (as we could not under the great excitement which prevailed, do), yet we have done that which the necessity and prudence of our position required. We believe it now better to proceed with our work, under our present organization, than to form a new Grand Lodge, as by it we shall retain a supervision over those charters which have been granted under our authority, calling in such as it may be proper to amend, and extending our protection to others.

We have sent no printed publication of our proceedings to our sister Grand Lodges in the United States for several years past, and we hope the statement herewith sent will suffice as an apology to them and to your Grand Lodge. At the triennial meetings of the General Grand Chapter of the United States, held at Baltimore, New York and New Haven, I have personally attended and made a report of our situation, which may be recognized by some members of that body who are members of yours.

In conclusion we ask the shield of the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts to be cast over us, and her sanction given to our acts and doings as herein stated.

NATHAN B. HASWELL.
Grand Master.

BURLINGTON, VT., Dec. 27, A. L. 5845.

No printed publication has been made of the proceedings of the Grand Lodge of Vermont since 1834.

At the session in 1836 Bro. N. B. Haswell introduced the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted :

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED BY BRO. N. B. HASWELL, AND ADOPTED BY THE GRAND LODGE OF VERMONT AT THEIR SESSION, A. L. 5836.

Resolved, That this Grand Lodge do acknowledge and will at all times cheerfully yield their support to all constitutional laws, declaring that duty to their God, and obedience to such laws, are paramount to all other obligations.

Resolved, That claiming the constitutional right of peaceably meeting, as Masons have done in this State for more than forty years past, we again declare that we are, when convened as well as when dispersed, left to the free and unmolested enjoyment of our various opinions upon religion and politics, and further declare that Masons or Masonic bodies have not the right to connect the institution with the conflicting sectarian or party views of either of them.

Resolved, That we again renew our disclaimer of the right of inflicting corporeal punishment upon our members for infractions of duty, acknowledging no other right to enforce obedience to our rules and regulations but that of reprimand, suspension or expulsion.

Resolved, That as all manner of evil is spoken against us, we will renew our endeavors to prove by our lives and conversation, the purity of our principles, and the rectitude of our intentions ; when reviled, to revile not again, that by this doing we may overcome evil with good.

Resolved, That again appealing to the Supreme Architect of the Universe, with an humble trust upon His Almighty Arm for support, we reiterate and declare to the world, that the object of our association and motives for continuing therein are founded upon the principles of brotherly love, relief and truth, the maintenance and support of which shall cease only with our existence.

Resolved, That the foregoing resolutions are recommended by a sound policy, having for its object the maintenance of rights guaranteed to us by the constitution of our common country.

The foregoing statement and resolutions were forwarded to Bro. C. W.

Moore, Boston, Mass., by Bro. N. B. Haswell, December 27th, A. L. 5845.
A copy of his letter was as follows :

BURLINGTON, VT., December 27th, A. L. 5845.

BROTHER MOORE :

I forward to your charge a communication and statement in behalf of the officers of our Grand Lodge, which please examine before presenting it and do for us what you think proper to be done in the case.

I find many of our brethren are wishing to again resume the work of Masonry in Vermont, and it is desirable it should be done under our present organization. Our having made provision for keeping up our organization varies our case from that of Michigan, and as we are willing to place ourselves under the shield and protection of the oldest Grand Lodge in the United States previous to our again commencing work under our organization, I trust her healing power, if any should be required, will most cheerfully and fraternally be extended to us.

Not being apprized of the names of the officers of the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts, I have taken the liberty to send you this communication and documents, and we request you to act as our representative in the matter.

We meet at our hall in this place, on the 2d Wednesday of January next (14th), and shall be happy to hear from you previous to that time.

Very truly and fraternally yours,

NATHAN B. HASWELL.

The following is a copy of the letter written by Brother N. B. Haswell, calling a meeting of the Grand Lodge officers, as referred to in the foregoing document.

BURLINGTON, December 28th, 1845.

BROTHER :

A meeting of the officers of the Grand Lodge will be held at Masons' Hall, in this place, on the 2d Wednesday of January next (14th), at 9 o'clock, A. M.

We shall feel happy in meeting you and other Brethren at that time to consult on our Masonic interests.

We think it not best to issue any public notice, as we wish not to give alarm, or see any but true and faithful Masons. To such in your vicinity please communicate this information and let me know if it will be convenient for you to attend.

Yours, fraternally,

NATHAN B. HASWELL.
