Brethren,

I came across a brief thought I'd like to share with you regarding one of the principal tenants of our Fraternity: Brotherly Love.

"Brotherly Love or Friendship is regarded by Freemasons as the strong cement of the Order; without this high moral virtue, the Fraternity would soon cease to exist. By Brotherly Love, we are to understand that generous principle of the soul which regards the human species as one family, created by an All-wise Being, and placed on this globe for the mutual assistance of each other. The man who is actuated by the pure principle of Brotherly Love, will not desert his friend when dangers threaten or misfortunes assail him. When he is calumniated, he will openly and boldly espouse his cause, and endeavor to remove the aspersion. When sickness or infirmity occasion him to be deserted by others, he will seize the opportunity, and redouble all the affectionate attentions which love suggests. No society can exist for any length of time, unless Brotherly Love prevail among its members. To "dwell together in unity," is the life and support of the great Masonic institution." (Excerpt from the book General Ahiman Rezon, by Daniel Sickels)

I feel at times we may find ourselves using the word Brother without really appreciating the meaning and power that it truly represents, because it is truly more than just a greeting or a salutation, and as such, I am proud and humbled to have you all as my Brothers.

Sincerely and Fraternaly, Chris Young WM

What's Happening – What's New

Grand Lodge Communications is fast approaching, taking place February 1st through the 3rd in Salt Lake City. The Grand Master has encouraged all Master Masons to attend if able, and participate in the proceedings. Several members from Cedar are already planning to attend, and we will be finalizing car pools and hotel rooms soon. If you have any questions or need more information please contact me.

Our first public pot-luck dinner held last month was a great success! It was well attended and we had a few potential candidates come up to meet everyone and have their questions answered. A big thanks to everyone who attended and helped make it a fun evening. We will be continuing these dinners on our third Thursday meet-up nights, so make sure to mark your calendar, bring your family and friends, and enjoy an evening of good food and good company!
