A member of a Lodge, who previously has gone to meetings regularly, stopped attending. After a few months, the Worshipful Master decided to visit him. It was a chilly evening and the Worshipful Master found his Brother at home alone, sitting before a blazing fire. Guessing the reason for the Worshipful Master's visit, the Brother welcomed him, led him to a comfortable chair near the fireplace and waited for the inevitable questions and possible mild admonishment.

The Worshipful Master made himself comfortable, but said nothing. In the still silence, they both contemplated the dance of the flames around the burning logs. After several minutes, the Worshipful Master took the fire tongs, carefully picked up a brightly burning ember and placed it to one side of the hearth, all alone. Then he sat back in his chair, still silent. His host watched in quiet contemplation. As the lone ember's flame flickered and diminished, there was a momentary glow, then its fire was no more.

Not a word had been spoken since the initial greeting. The Worshipful Master glanced at his watch and chose his time to leave. He slowly stood up, picked up the cold, dead ember, and placed it back in the middle of the fire. Immediately, it began to glow once more, with all the light and warmth of the burning logs around it.

As the Worshipful Master reached the door to leave, his host looked him in the eyes and said, "Thank you for your ardent summons, my Brother. I'll be back in our Lodge next meeting."

~ Remember - when you are at lodge, it's your job to provide the warmth and light in the above story to kindle fraternity with your fellow brothers.

Sincerely and Fraternally, Chris Young WM

What's Happening – What's New

Once again, we give thanks to those who participated in our pot-luck dinner this past month and helped make it a success. We hope to see everyone again next month, and as always we welcome family and friends to join us for a night of food and friendship! Our thanks also to Wor. Bro. Ed Nelson for obtaining the new stove for the kitchen, and to Wor. Bro. Neal Lundberg for taking care of some much needed roof maintenance.

Our congratulations to Bro. Jacob Richter on being Passed to the degree of Fellowcraft, and our thanks to those who took part in the degree. It was a great night of Masonry for everyone in attendance and is always a rewarding experience to assist our brothers on their Masonic journey.
