What's Happening – What's New

Another busy month for our lodge has come and gone, and with several events and degrees coming up the end of the year looks to be a very fruitful one as well! First, we'd like to welcome our newest Entered Apprentice Bro. Brian Peters. We're delighted to have him join the fraternity and look forward to helping him progress through the degrees. We now have three Entered Apprentices who are working towards their second degree!

This past month we were honored to be asked to host the Most Worshipful Grand Master and other Grand Lodge officers for the joint Grand Visitation and Leadership Training which took place at our lodge. We were joined by the brothers from St. George Lodge #33, and the comment was made several times that this was one of the best attended visitations in the state this year. The morning trainings and discussion sessions were very informative, a wonderful lunch was provided, followed by the Visitation in the afternoon. We would like to thank everyone who attended and helped make the arrangements necessary for a very enjoyable day of brotherhood here in southern Utah!

Our monthly potluck was held on the 19th and was also well attended and enjoyed by all who were able to come! A hearty thanks to everyone who participated. Our potluck this month will be held on Thursday the 17th. As always, family and friends are welcome to attend, and these dinners are the perfect opportunity to introduce our fraternity to anyone who may be interested in finding out more. Hope to see you there!

Fraternally,
John Adams PM, Secretary

When is a man a Mason?

“When is a man a Mason? When he can look out over the rivers, the hills, and the far horizon with a profound sense of his own littleness in the vast scheme of things, and yet have faith, hope and courage which is the root of every virtue. When he knows that down in his heart every man is as noble, as vile, as divine, as diabolic, and as lonely as himself, and yet seeks to know, to forgive, and to love his fellowman. When he knows how to sympathize with men in their sorrows, yea, even in their sins, knowing that each man fights a hard fight against many odds. When he has learned how to make friends and to keep them, and above all how to keep friends with himself. When he loves flowers, can hunt the birds without a gun, and feels the thrill of an old forgotten joy when he hears the laugh of a little child. When he can be happy and high-minded amid the meaner drudgeries of life. When star-crowned trees, and the glint of sunlight on flowing waters, subdue him like the thought of one much loved and long dead. When no voice of distress reaches his ears in vain, and no hand seeks his aid without response. When he finds good in every faith that helps any man to lay hold of divine things and sees majestic meanings in life, whatever the name of that faith may be. When he can look into a wayside puddle and see something beyond mud, and into the face of the most forlorn fellow mortal and see something beyond sin. When he knows how to pray, how to live, how to hope. When he has kept faith with himself, with his fellow man, and with his God; in his hand a sword for evil, in his heart a bit of song – glad to live, but not afraid to die! Such a man has found the only real secret of Masonry, and the one which it is trying to give to all the world.”
